1. Qualitative Information Regarding Six-month Period Results

Adoption of IFRSs

SoftBank Corp. adopted the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) from the three-month period ended June 30, 2013 (the “first quarter”; transition date: April 1, 2012). The financial data for the six-month period ended September 30, 2012 (the “same period of the previous fiscal year”) and the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013 (the “previous fiscal year”) are also presented based on IFRSs.

The main items to be adjusted from JGAAP in accordance with the adoption of IFRSs are as follows:

- Change in scope of consolidation
 - eAccess Ltd. and Wireless City Planning Inc., which were associates under JGAAP, are subsidiaries under IFRSs.
- Items related to consolidated statements of financial position
 - Regarding certain securitization transactions that previously qualified for extinguishment of financial assets under JGAAP, securitized receivables are recognized retrospectively and accompanying liabilities are recognized as interest-bearing debt under IFRSs when they are not qualified for derecognition of financial assets under IFRSs.
 - Preferred securities issued by a subsidiary were accounted for as equity transactions and recorded as minority interests under JGAAP. Under IFRSs they are accounted for as under interest-bearing debt in the consolidated statements of financial position.
- Items related to the consolidated statements of income
 - Goodwill is amortized regularly under JGAAP. Under IFRSs, goodwill is not amortized regularly but tested for impairment at least once a year.
 - Commission fees paid related to the sales of mobile handsets were accounted for as costs when they occur under JGAAP. Under IFRSs, the amount of commission fees expected to occur in the future is deducted from revenues.

Please refer to page 75 “15. First-time adoption of IFRSs” under “3. Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (6) Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements” for details of these adjustments.

Concerning Consolidation of Sprint

As of July 10, 2013 the Company (SoftBank Corp. and its subsidiaries) closed the acquisition of Sprint Corporation (previously Sprint Nextel Corporation, “Sprint”) and started its consolidation. Along with this, a new reportable segment “Sprint,” has been established from the three-month period ended September 30, 2013 (the “second quarter”).

For details about consolidation of Sprint, please refer to page 52 “(2) Sprint” under “3. Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (6) Notes to Condensed Interim Financial Statements 5. Business combinations”

(1) Qualitative Information Regarding Consolidated Results of Operations

a. Consolidated Results of Operations

For the six-month period ended September 30, 2013 (the “interim period”), the Company achieved consolidated net sales of ¥2,598,612 million, a ¥1,093,968 million (72.7%) increase year on year, with a ¥285,941 million (66.6%) increase in operating income to ¥715,070 million. Net income increased ¥186,345 million (76.8%) to ¥428,873 million, and net income attributable to owners of the parent increased ¥180,357 million (84.1%) to ¥394,916 million.

The main factors affecting earnings for the interim period were as follows:

(a) Net Sales

Net sales totaled ¥2,598,612 million, for a ¥1,093,968 million (72.7%) year-on-year increase. This was mainly due to recording sales of ¥760,941 million in the newly added Sprint segment from the second quarter. Apart from this, the Mobile Communications segment also recorded a ¥298,564 million year-on-year increase in net sales. The increase in the Mobile Communications segment was due to the impact of consolidating eAccess Ltd. from January 2013, GungHo Online Entertainment, Inc.¹ (“GungHo”) from April 2013 and WILLCOM, Inc.² from July 2013, as well as increases in the number of subscribers and units sold³ at SoftBank Mobile Corp., which led to increases in both service revenue (mainly former telecommunications revenue) and product sales (mainly former sales of handsets).

(b) Cost of Sales

Cost of sales increased ¥706,640 million (98.4%) year on year to ¥1,424,908 million. This was primarily due to the addition of the Sprint segment. Furthermore, in the Mobile Communications segment, in addition to the impact of consolidating eAccess Ltd., GungHo, and WILLCOM, Inc., the cost of goods rose in line with an increase in the number of iPhones⁴ and other smartphones sold at SoftBank Mobile Corp.

(c) Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased by ¥350,398 million (98.1%) year on year to ¥707,645 million. This was mainly due to the addition of the Sprint segment. Furthermore, in the Mobile Communications segment, in addition to the impact of consolidating eAccess Ltd., GungHo, and WILLCOM, Inc., there was an increase in sales commissions at SoftBank Mobile Corp.

(d) Income from Remeasurement Relating to Business Combinations

Income from remeasurement relating to business combinations was ¥253,886 million (not recorded in the same period of the previous fiscal year). This corresponds to income of ¥150,120 million and ¥103,766 million recognized following reevaluation at fair value of the Company’s equity interests in GungHo and WILLCOM, Inc., already held on the dates when the Company acquired control of each company. Please refer to page 50 “(1) GungHo Online Entertainment, Inc.” and page 57 “(3) WILLCOM, Inc.” under “3. Condensed Interim

¹ GungHo was made a subsidiary of the Company from an associate in April 2013. See page 50 “(1) GungHo Online Entertainment, Inc.” under “3. Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (6) Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements 5. Business combinations” for details.

² WILLCOM, Inc. was made a subsidiary of the Company in July 2013. See page 57 “(3) WILLCOM, Inc.” under “3. Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (6) Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements 5. Business combinations” for details.

³ Units sold: the total number of new subscriptions and handset upgrades

⁴ iPhone is a trademark of Apple Inc. The iPhone trademark is used under license from Aiphone K.K.

Consolidated Financial Statements (6) Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements 5. Business combinations” for details.

(e) Other Operating Loss

Other operating loss was ¥4,875 million (not recorded in the same period of the previous fiscal year).

(f) Operating Income

As a result of (a) to (e), operating income totaled ¥715,070 million, for a ¥285,941 million (66.6%) year-on-year increase.

(g) Finance Cost, Net

Finance cost, net deteriorated ¥67,646 million year on year to a loss of ¥105,023 million. The main components were as shown below. Please refer to page 69 “12. Finance cost, net” under “3. Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (6) Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements” for details about derivative losses and interest income.

- i. Interest expense increased ¥80,208 million year on year to ¥105,862 million. The increase was mainly due to the impact of adding the interest expense of Sprint, as well as an increase in interest expenses for bonds and borrowings at SoftBank Corp.
- ii. Derivative losses increased ¥23,319 million year on year to ¥25,824 million.
 - Stock acquisition rights in the convertible bonds issued by Sprint Nextel Corporation and undertaken by Starburst II, Inc. on October 22, 2012 were recorded at fair value as a derivative. As the Company exercised the relevant stock acquisition rights and derecognized the derivatives, a derivative loss of ¥16,356 million was recorded.
 - Of the foreign currency forward contract totaling approximate $22.0 billion which is related to the acquisition of Sprint, with regard to the approximate $5.0 billion that did not meet the criteria for hedge accounting, a derivative loss of ¥13,186 million was recorded. Hedge accounting was applied to the approximate $17.0 billion, which resulted in a deduction of the acquisition cost of Sprint by ¥311,659 million.
- iii. Interest income increased ¥18,817 million year on year to ¥19,284 million. Regarding the convertible bonds issued by Sprint Nextel Corporation, initially the expected remaining accretion period for the bond discount was 7 years based on the contract term of the bonds. However, the Company changed the estimate of the expected remaining term to the completion of the acquisition. Accordingly, the Company recognized interest income of ¥16,219 million, in conjunction with the change in the expected remaining term of the bonds.

(h) Equity in Loss of Associates

Equity in loss of associates was ¥3,780 million, a deterioration of ¥2,500 million year on year (equity in loss of associates of ¥1,280 million was recorded for the same period of the previous fiscal year).

(i) Income before Income Tax

As a result of (f) to (h), income before income tax was ¥606,267 million, an increase of ¥215,795 million (55.3%) year on year.

(j) Income Taxes

Provisions for current income taxes were ¥177,394 million, an increase of ¥29,450 million (19.9%) year on year. The increase was mainly attributable to the consolidation of GungHo.

(k) Net Income

As a result of (i) to (j), net income totaled ¥428,873 million, for a ¥186,345 million (76.8%) year-on-year increase.

(l) Net Income Attributable to Owners of the Parent

After deducting net income attributable to non-controlling interests in subsidiaries such as Yahoo Japan Corporation and GungHo from (k), net income attributable to owners of the parent was ¥394,916 million, for a ¥180,357 million (84.1%) increase year on year.

(m) Comprehensive Income

Total comprehensive income was ¥190,910 million, for a ¥37,261 million (16.3%) year-on-year decrease. Of this, comprehensive income attributable to owners of the parent was ¥172,802 million (for a ¥27,202 million (13.6%) year-on-year decrease).

b. Results by Segment

The Company's reportable segments^(Note 1) are components of business activities for which decisions on resource allocation and assessment of performance are made. The Company has four reportable segments: "Mobile Communications," "Sprint," "Fixed-line Telecommunications," and "Internet."

From the second quarter, the former "Domestic Mobile Communications" and "Domestic Fixed-line Telecommunications" segments were renamed as "Mobile Communications" and "Fixed-line Telecommunications," respectively. The Sprint segment was newly established from the second quarter, along with Sprint's consolidation.

In the Mobile Communications segment, SoftBank Mobile Corp. and other companies provide mobile communications services and sales of mobile handsets and accessories, etc.

In the Sprint segment, Sprint provides mobile communications services in the U.S. and sales of mobile handsets and accessories accompanying the services, as well as fixed-line telecommunication services.

In the Fixed-line Telecommunications segment, SoftBank Telecom Corp. provides telecommunication services, such as fixed-line telecommunications and data communications services to corporate customers, while SoftBank BB Corp. and other companies provide broadband services for individual customers.

In the Internet segment, Yahoo Japan Corporation provides Internet-based advertising operations and other services.

The reportable segments, their main businesses, and their core companies are listed in the table below.

Segments		Main Business	Core Companies

Notes:

1. The results for the same period of the previous fiscal year have been presented in line with the above reportable segments.
2. Segment income is calculated as follows:
Segment income = (net sales – cost of sales – selling, general and administrative expenses) in each segment
3. Consolidated operating income is the result of adding or deducting income from remeasurement relating to business combinations and other operating income (loss) to the sum of segment income.

(a) Mobile Communications Segment

(Millions of yen)

	Six-month Period Ended Sept. 30, 2012 YoY	Six-month Period Ended Sept. 30, 2013 (the interim period)	Change	Change %
Net sales	1,087,963	1,386,527	298,564	27.4%
Segment income	289,951	339,551	49,600	17.1%

< Overview of Operations >

The segment's net sales increased by ¥298,564 million (27.4%) year on year to ¥1,386,527 million. The main factor behind the increase was the impact of consolidating eAccess Ltd., GungHo, and WILLCOM, Inc., in addition to increases in the number of mobile phone subscribers and units sold at SoftBank Mobile Corp., which led to increases in both service revenue (mainly former telecom service revenue) and product sales (mainly former sales of mobile handsets).

The segment's operating expenses increased by ¥248,964 million (31.2%) year on year to ¥1,046,976 million. The principal cause of this increase was the impact of consolidating eAccess Ltd., GungHo, and WILLCOM, Inc., and higher operating expenses at SoftBank Mobile Corp. The cost of goods and sales commissions rose at SoftBank Mobile Corp. in line with sales enhancement of iPhones and other smartphones.

As a result, segment income increased by ¥49,600 million (17.1%) year on year to ¥339,551 million.

< Overview of Business Operations >
• Number of Subscribers

Net subscriber additions (new subscribers minus cancellations) for the interim period at SoftBank Mobile Corp. totaled 1,586,000. This was primarily the result of steady sales of smartphones such as iPhone, Mimamori Phone (handset with security buzzer), and PhotoVision (a digital photo frame with telecommunications functionality), due to conducting various sales promotions for iPhone.⁵ As a result, the cumulative number of subscribers⁶ at SoftBank Mobile Corp. at the end of the second quarter stood at 34,066,000.

• ARPU

ARPU (excluding communication modules)⁷ at SoftBank Mobile Corp. for the second quarter decreased by ¥130 year on year to ¥4,520. Out of this, data ARPU rose ¥170 year on year to ¥2,930. The decline in ARPU mainly reflects an increase in subscribers of low data-usage products such as Mimamori Phone, and a decline in the usage of voice call function of voice devices. As for data ARPU, the continuous increase in the number of high data-ARPU smartphone subscribers contributed to an increase.

⁵ Including a promotion for new and upgrading customers offering discounts, a promotion offering discounts to upgrading existing customers that allows their family members to use the old handset (if they make a new subscription), etc.

⁶ Includes the number of prepaid mobile phones and communication module service subscribers.

The cumulative number of communication module service subscribers at the end of the second quarter totaled 3,341,000.

⁷ For definition and calculation of ARPU at SoftBank Mobile Corp., see page 12 "(Reference 2: Subsidiaries' Definition and Calculation Method of Principal Operational Data (a) SoftBank Mobile Corp.)"

• Number of Units Sold

The number of units sold at SoftBank Mobile Corp. for the interim period increased by 587,000 year on year to 6,170,000. Various sales promotions for iPhone continued to deliver strong sales, contributing to increases in both new subscriptions and handset upgrades.

(b) Sprint Segment

(Millions of yen)

	Six-month Period Ended Sept. 30, 2012 YoY	Six-month Period Ended Sept. 30, 2013 (the interim period)	Change	Change %
Net sales	Segment was newly established from this second quarter	760,941	-	-%
Segment income (loss)		(22,304)	-	-%

Note:

4. In the Sprint segment, the earnings reflect the operation results of Sprint since July 11, 2013, whereas its principal operational data⁸ for the second quarter, such as number of subscribers, ARPU and churn rate, are presented based on Sprint's operation results from July 1 to September 30, 2013 for reference purposes.

< Overview of Operations >

The segment's net sales totaled ¥760,941 million. This mainly includes Sprint platform⁹ service revenue and product sales. Nextel platform¹⁰ service revenue is no longer recorded in the second quarter as a result of its shutdown on June 30, 2013.

The segment's operating expenses totaled ¥783,245 million. Operating expenses include ¥43,700 million of amortization of customer relationships (amortized based on the sum-of-the-digits method) recorded at Sprint's consolidation.

As a result, segment loss was ¥22,304 million.

< Overview of Business Operations >

Net subscriber losses for the second quarter at Sprint totaled 313,000, which included net loss of 535,000 in postpaid, and net additions of 28,000 in prepaid and 194,000 in wholesale and affiliate. As a result, the cumulative number of subscribers at Sprint at the end of the second quarter stood at 54,877,000. This includes 30,906,000 postpaid subscribers, 16,003,000 prepaid subscribers and 7,968,000 wholesale and affiliate subscribers.

For the second quarter, Sprint platform ARPU was $64.28 for postpaid and $25.33 for prepaid, and its churn rate was 1.99 % for postpaid and 3.57 % for prepaid.

⁸ For definition and calculation of ARPU and churn rate at Sprint, see page 13 "(Reference 2: Subsidiaries' Definition and Calculation Method of Principal Operational Data (b) Sprint Platform)."

⁹ Sprint operated CDMA and LTE networks. This excludes the Nextel/ iDEN network and the subscribers/network acquired through transactions with U.S. Cellular Corporation and Clearwire Corporation.

¹⁰ Wireless service operated on Integrated Digital Enhanced Network (iDEN), which Sprint acquired from Nextel Corporation in 2005.

(c) Fixed-line Telecommunications Segment

(Millions of yen)

	Six-month Period Ended Sept. 30, 2012 YoY	Six-month Period Ended Sept. 30, 2013 (the interim period)	Change	Change %
Net sales	262,064	270,369	8,305	3.2%
Segment income	59,849	59,116	(733)	(1.2%)

< Overview of Operations >

The segment's net sales increased by ¥8,305 million (3.2%) year on year to ¥270,369 million. This was mainly the impact of consolidating eAccess Ltd. On the other hand, revenues from the broadband business for individual customers decreased due to a decline in the number of ADSL service subscribers.

Segment income decreased by ¥733 million (1.2%) year on year to ¥59,116 million. This was mainly due to the decrease in net sales in the broadband business for individual customers.

(d) Internet Segment

(Millions of yen)

	Six-month Period Ended Sept. 30, 2012 YoY	Six-month Period Ended Sept. 30, 2013 (the interim period)	Change	Change %
Net sales	163,061	196,290	33,229	20.4%
Segment income	81,271	94,583	13,312	16.4%

<Overview of Operations>

The segment's net sales increased by ¥33,229 million (20.4%) year on year to ¥196,290 million. The increase was the result of growth in display advertising¹¹ revenue due to a significant increase in advertisements on *Yahoo! Display Ad Network (YDN)*¹² and an increase in revenue from sponsored-search advertising, especially through smartphones, at Yahoo Japan Corporation.

Segment income increased by ¥13,312 million (16.4%) year on year to ¥94,583 million. This was primarily the result of the increase in net sales.

¹¹ Advertisements displayed on the contents pages of Yahoo! JAPAN and major affiliated websites. Includes a mechanism that shows advertisements related to advertisers' products and services in which a user might be interested, based on the content the user is viewing, the user's interests (as derived from the user's browsing history or search keywords), attributes, or geographical locations.

(Reference 2: Subsidiaries' Definition and Calculation Method of Principal Operational Data)

(a) SoftBank Mobile Corp.

i. ARPU

ARPU (Average Revenue Per User per month) (rounded to the nearest ¥10)

ARPU (excluding communication modules)

= (data-related revenue (excluding communication modules) + basic monthly charge, voice-related revenues, etc. (excluding communication modules)) / number of active subscribers (excluding communication modules)

Data ARPU (excluding communication modules)

= data-related revenue (excluding communication modules) / number of active subscribers (excluding communication modules)

ARPU (including communication modules)

= (data-related revenue + basic monthly charge, voice-related revenues, etc.) / number of active subscribers

Data ARPU (including communication modules)

= data-related revenue / number of active subscribers

Number of active subscribers: the total of the monthly number of active subscribers for the relevant period

((subscribers at the beginning of the month + subscribers at the end of the month)/2).

The number of active subscribers is based on SoftBank Mobile Corp.'s cumulative subscribers including prepaid mobile phones, and devices that do not have voice communication functionalities (excluding communication modules).

The number of active subscribers used in the calculation of ARPU (including communication modules) includes communication modules.

Data-related revenue: packet communication and flat-rate charges, basic monthly Internet connection charges, content-related revenues, etc.

Basic monthly charge and voice-related revenues: basic monthly usage charges, voice call charges, revenues from incoming calls, device warrantee services, advertising revenue, etc.

Revenues from incoming calls: interconnection charges received from other operators for voice calls from their customers on their network to SoftBank mobile phones as a charge for the services provided in the SoftBank Mobile Corp. service area.

ii. Churn rate

Churn rate = churn / number of active subscribers (rounded to the nearest 0.01%)

Churn = total number of subscribers that churned during the relevant period

Number of active subscribers: the total of the monthly number of active subscribers for the relevant period

((subscribers at the beginning of the month + subscribers at the end of the month)/2).

The number of active subscribers is based on SoftBank Mobile Corp.'s cumulative subscribers including prepaid mobile phones, communication modules, and devices that do not have voice communication functionalities.

The number of active subscribers used in the calculation of churn rate of postpaid subscribers excludes prepaid mobile phones.

ii. Upgrade rate

Upgrade rate = number of upgrades / number of active subscribers (rounded to the nearest 0.01%)

Number of upgrades = total number of upgrades during the relevant period

Number of active subscribers: the total of the monthly numbers of active subscribers for the relevant period

((subscribers at the beginning of the month + subscribers at the end of the month)/2).

The number of active subscribers is based on SoftBank Mobile Corp.'s cumulative subscribers including prepaid mobile phones, communication modules, and devices that do not have voice communication functionalities.

(b) Sprint Platformi. ARPU

ARPU (Average Revenue Per User per month) (rounded to the nearest $.00)

ARPU = Service revenue/ average number of active subscribers

Number of active subscribers: the total of the monthly number of active subscribers for the relevant period
((subscribers at the beginning of the month + subscribers at the end of the month)/2).

The number of active subscribers is based on cumulative subscribers including communication modules and devices that do not have voice communication functionalities.

ii. Churn rate

Churn rate = number of deactivations / average number of active subscribers (rounded to the nearest 0.01%)

Deactivations = total number of subscribers that churned during the relevant period

Number of active subscribers: the total of the monthly number of active subscribers for the relevant period
((subscribers at the beginning of the month + subscribers at the end of the month)/2).

The number of active postpaid subscribers is based on cumulative subscribers including communication modules, and devices that do not have voice communication functionalities.

The number of deactivations excludes the number of subscribers who switches between prepaid and postpaid on the same date.

Current assets at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥4,356,333 million, for a ¥1,570,314 million (56.4%) increase from March 31, 2013 (the “previous fiscal year-end”). The components of the change of primary items were as follows:

i. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥2,183,600 million, for a ¥744,543 million increase from the previous fiscal year-end.

- The Company recognized ¥447,873 million for the consolidation of Sprint on the acquisition date.
- Sprint issued straight corporate bonds in the amount of $6.5 billion (¥638,300 million) in September 2013 and recorded cash and cash equivalents of approximately $3.0 billion and a segregated reserve account of approximately $3.5 billion. This is due to Sprint obtaining a limited waiver from each of the lenders of its credit line facilities, which should enable compliance with a financial covenant on its interest-bearing debts. As a requirement under the waivers, Sprint must maintain a segregated reserve account of approximately $3.5 billion until the earlier of the time existing Clearwire Corporation indebtedness is prepaid, or December 31, 2013 at which time the waivers will have expired. Sprint has already retired part of Clearwire Corporation’s indebtedness by the end of September 2013 and the balance of restricted cash was approximately $3.1 billion at the end of the second quarter.

Please refer to page 66 “(Note 3) Covenants on interest-bearing debts of Sprint” under “3. Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (6) Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements 9. Interest-bearing debt (1) Components of interest-bearing debt” for details about Sprint’s segregated reserve account.

ii. Trade and other receivables

Trade and other receivables at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥1,288,802 million, an increase of ¥352,495 million from the previous fiscal year-end. This increase was primarily due to recording ¥327,211 million for the consolidation of Sprint on the acquisition date.

iii. Other financial assets

Other financial assets at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥515,678 million, an increase of ¥286,439 million from the previous fiscal year-end. Sprint’s segregated reserve account of ¥298,138 million, and items such as derivative financial assets, fixed-term deposits and marketable securities are included in other financial assets.

- The Company recognized ¥111,764 million for the consolidation of Sprint on the acquisition date.
- Sprint deposited approximately $3.1 billion (¥299,501 million) into a segregated reserve account as a requirement of a limited waiver for its interest-bearing debt, resulting in an increase of other financial assets. Please refer to page 66 “(Note 3) Covenants on interest-bearing debts of Sprint” under “3. Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (6) Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements 9. Interest-bearing debt (1) Components of interest-bearing debt” for details about Sprint’s segregated reserve account.
- The Company had concluded a foreign currency forward contract for approximately $17.0 billion in relation to funding for the acquisition of Sprint, and recorded the fair value of this contract of ¥189,357 million in derivative financial assets at the end of the previous fiscal year. However, this derivative financial asset was derecognized and no value was ascribed to it due to the settlement of the foreign exchange transaction upon the completion of the acquisition of Sprint. Please refer to page 69 “12. Finance cost, net” under “3. Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (6) Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements” for details.

(b) Non-current Assets

(Millions of yen)

Item	As of March 31, 2013 A	Opening balance of Sprint on acquisition date (July 10, 2013) B	Other changes C	As of Sept. 30, 2013 D=A+B+C	Change E=B+C

Total non-current assets	4,430,790	6,898,531	(81,114)	11,248,207	6,817,417

Non-current assets totaled ¥11,248,207 million at the end of the second quarter, for a ¥6,817,417 million (153.9 %) increase from the previous fiscal year-end. The components of the change of primary items were as follows:

i. Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥3,304,788 million, for a ¥1,474,173 million increase from the previous fiscal year-end. This was mainly due to ¥1,291,364 million recognized for the consolidation of Sprint on the acquisition date. In addition, property, plant and equipment increased by ¥182,809 million due to capital expenditure, mainly in the Mobile Communications and Sprint segments.

ii. Goodwill

Goodwill at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥1,372,832 million, for a ¥445,433 million increase from the previous fiscal year-end.

- The Company recorded ¥294,418 million of goodwill for the consolidation of Sprint on the acquisition date. In relation to the acquisition of Sprint, the Company entered into a foreign currency forward contract, out of which approximately $17.0 billion was accounted for under hedge accounting. The fair value on the acquisition date of ¥311,659 million of this hedging instrument was deducted from the amount of goodwill initially recognized from the acquisition of Sprint. Please refer to page 56 “(Note 6) Basis adjustment” under “3. Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (6) Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements 5. Business combinations (2) Sprint f. Fair values of assets, liabilities, non-controlling interests and goodwill on the acquisition date” for details.
- The Company recorded goodwill of ¥146,032 million in relation to GungHo and ¥21,469 million in relation to WILLCOM, Inc. following their consolidation.

iii. Intangible assets

Intangible assets at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥5,713,816 million, for a ¥5,188,923 million increase from the previous fiscal year-end.

- The Company recorded ¥3,472,492 million for FCC Licenses²⁰ at the end of the second quarter (none recognized at the previous fiscal year-end). The Company recognized ¥3,587,335 million for the consolidation of Sprint on the acquisition date; however, the amount decreased by ¥114,843 million due to the stronger yen at the end of the second quarter compared to the acquisition date of Sprint. From an accounting perspective FCC Licenses are non-amortized assets.
- Customer relationships at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥730,037 million, for a ¥646,161 million increase from the previous fiscal year-end. This was mainly due to recognizing Sprint's customer relationships of ¥700,192 million for the consolidation of Sprint on the acquisition date. Customer relationships, mainly in relation to Sprint, eAccess Ltd. and WILLCOM, Inc., were amortized by total of ¥55,766 million in the interim period. In addition to these, there was a decrease by ¥23,269 million due to the stronger yen at the end of the second quarter compared to the acquisition date of Sprint.
- The Company recorded trademarks with indefinite useful lives of ¥580,146 million at the end of the second quarter (none recognized at the previous fiscal year-end). This was due to recognizing ¥600,266 million for trademarks held by Sprint for the consolidation on the acquisition date. Trademarks with indefinite useful lives are non-amortized assets.
- Software at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥590,777 million, for a ¥179,492 million increase from the previous fiscal year-end. The main components of the change were ¥138,330 million recognized for the consolidation of Sprint on the acquisition date and an increase of ¥41,162 million due to capital expenditures, mainly in the Mobile Communications and Sprint segments.

iv. Other financial assets

Other financial assets at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥300,976 million, for a ¥333,671 million decrease from the previous fiscal year-end. At the previous fiscal year-end the convertible bonds issued by Sprint Nextel corporation and shares of WILLCOM, Inc. were recorded as investment securities. The decrease was mainly related to the ending amount of both investment securities becoming zero, as a result of their consolidation in the second quarter.

²⁰ Licenses issued by the U.S. Federal Communications Commission for use of specified frequency bands.

(c) Current Liabilities

Total current liabilities	2,837,916	1,118,984	(491,139)	3,465,761	627,845

Current liabilities at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥3,465,761 million, for a ¥627,845 million (22.1 %) increase from the previous fiscal year-end. The components of the change of primary items were as follows:

i. Interest-bearing debt

Interest-bearing debt at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥1,203,520 million, for a ¥330,608 million decrease from the previous fiscal year-end. This was mainly due to decreases of ¥258,413 million in the current portion of long-term borrowings and ¥124,026 million in short-term borrowings. This was due to the Company repaying part of existing borrowings, in accordance with the refinancing of the Sprint acquisition bridge loan and existing borrowings in September 2013.

ii. Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥1,569,463 million for a ¥596,794 million increase from the previous fiscal year-end. This was mainly due to ¥651,608 million recognized for the consolidation of Sprint on the acquisition date.

iii. Other current liabilities

Other current liabilities at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥408,011 million for a ¥265,377 million increase from the previous fiscal year-end. This was mainly due to ¥286,158 million recognized for the consolidation of Sprint on the acquisition date.

(d) Non-current Liabilities

(Millions of yen)

Item	As of March 31, 2013 A	Opening balance of Sprint on acquisition date (July 10, 2013) B	Other changes C	As of Sept. 30, 2013 D=A+B+C	Change E=B+C

Total non-current liabilities	2,448,465	4,499,745	2,664,850	9,613,060	7,164,595

Non-current liabilities totaled ¥9,613,060 million at the end of the second quarter, for a ¥7,164,595 million (292.6 %) increase from the previous fiscal year-end. The components of the change of primary items were as follows:

i. Interest-bearing debt

Interest-bearing debt at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥7,636,644 million, for an increase of ¥5,462,919 million from the previous fiscal year-end.

- Corporate bonds at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥4,531,948 million, for a ¥3,740,029 million increase from the previous fiscal year-end. The increase in corporate bonds mainly reflects ¥2,593,343 million recognized for the consolidation of Sprint on the acquisition date, in addition to Sprint's issuance of straight corporate bonds in the amount of $6.5 billion (¥638,300 million), and SoftBank Corp.'s issuance of unsecured straight corporate bonds of ¥400,000 million and foreign currency denominated straight corporate bonds of ¥324,382 million.
- Long-term borrowings at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥2,110,735 million, for an increase of ¥1,599,879 million from the previous fiscal year-end. This was mainly due to the Company entering into a loan agreement with maximum amount of borrowing at ¥1.98 trillion in September 2013 and borrowing the entire contracted amount, while concurrently repaying part of existing borrowings. For further details regarding the changes in interest-bearing debt during the interim period, please refer to page 64 "9. Interest-bearing debt" under "3. Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (6) Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements."

ii. Deferred tax liabilities

Deferred tax liabilities at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥1,427,332 million, for an increase of ¥1,307,704 million from the previous fiscal year-end. This was mainly due to recognition of a temporary difference relating to FCC Licenses, and trademarks with indefinite useful lives following the consolidation of Sprint.

(e) Equity

Total equity was ¥2,525,719 million at the end of the second quarter, for a ¥595,291 million (30.8%) increase from the previous fiscal year-end. Of this amount, total equity attributable to owners of the parent increased by ¥138,142 million (8.6%) from the previous fiscal year-end. Despite the increase in total equity attributable to owners of the parent, the amount of assets and liabilities also increased following the consolidation of Sprint. As a result, the equity ratio for equity attributable to owners of the parent decreased by 11.1 percentage points from the previous fiscal year-end to 11.2%. The components of the change of primary items were as follows:

(Equity attributable to owners of the parent)

Total equity attributable to owners of the parent at the end of the second quarter was ¥1,750,898 million, for a ¥138,142 million increase from the previous fiscal year-end.

- i. Retained earnings at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥1,083,163 million, for a ¥371,075 million increase from the previous fiscal year-end. This mainly reflected the recording of net income attributable to owners of the parent of ¥394,916 million for the interim period, despite a decrease of ¥23,830 million due to the payment of the year-end dividend for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2013.
- ii. Accumulated other comprehensive income at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥25,923 million, for a ¥222,103 million decrease from the previous fiscal year-end. The components of the change were as follows:
 - Approximately $17.0 billion was previously accounted for under hedge accounting, out of a foreign currency forward contract concluded in relation to the acquisition of Sprint. Accumulated other comprehensive income from this approximately $17.0 billion was derecognized in the second quarter and deducted from goodwill initially recognized from the consolidation of Sprint. Please refer to page 56 “(Note 6) Basis adjustment” under “3. Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (6) Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements 5. Business combinations (2) Sprint f. Fair values of assets, liabilities, non-controlling interests and goodwill on the acquisition date” for details.
 - At the previous fiscal year-end, the Company measured the fair value of its shares of WILLCOM, Inc., which were classified as available-for-sale financial assets, and recognized the difference between the fair value and the acquisition cost as accumulated other comprehensive income, net of tax. Following the consolidation of WILLCOM, Inc. in the second quarter, the entire amount of the accumulated other comprehensive income recognized relating to these shares was derecognized and recognized as income from remeasurement relating to business combinations in the consolidated statements of income.
 - Exchange differences on translating foreign operations decreased by the negative exchange differences relating to Sprint, due to the stronger yen at the end of the second quarter compared to its acquisition date.

(Non-controlling interests)

Non-controlling interests at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥774,821 million, for a ¥457,149 million increase from the previous fiscal year-end, mainly in conjunction with consolidating Sprint and GungHo.

b. Cash Flows

Cash flows during the interim period were as follows:

Cash and cash equivalents at the end of the second quarter totaled ¥2,183,600 million, for a ¥744,543 million increase from the previous fiscal year-end.

(Millions of yen)

(a) Cash Flows from Operating Activities

Net cash provided by operating activities totaled ¥451,229 million (compared with ¥446,972 million provided in the same period of the previous fiscal year). Out of this, Sprint's net cash provided by operating activities (for the period from July 11 to September 30, 2013) totaled ¥55,910 million. The primary components were as follows:

- i. Net income totaled ¥428,873 million.
- ii. The main items added to net income were ¥349,939 million in depreciation and amortization, ¥177,394 million in income taxes, and ¥107,858 million in finance cost, net.
- iii. The main item deducted from net income was income from remeasurement relating to business combinations of ¥253,886 million. Please refer to page 50 "(1) GungHo Online Entertainment, Inc." and page 57 "(3) WILLCOM, Inc." under "3. Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (6) Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements 5. Business combinations" for details.
- iv. Interest paid was ¥123,600 million. The increase of ¥98,184 million compared with the same period of the previous fiscal year was mainly due to the impact of adding the interest expense of Sprint, as well as an increase in interest expenses for bonds and borrowings at SoftBank Corp.
- v. Income taxes paid was ¥183,047 million.

(b) Cash Flows from Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities was ¥2,102,052 million (compared with ¥343,662 million used in the same period of the previous fiscal year). The primary components were as follows:

- i. Decrease from acquisition of control over subsidiaries of ¥1,430,677 million was recorded, mainly due to the consolidation of Sprint and GungHo.

(Reference: Total invested amount for acquisition of Sprint)

The invested amount for the Sprint acquisition and the timing of payments is as follows:

	Invested amount		Timing of payment
	$	¥ (millions)
Purchase of convertible bonds ^(Note 8) A	$3.1 billion	249,333	Oct. 2012

Cash and cash equivalents held by Sprint at the time of acquisition of control F	Approx. $4.4 billion	447,873

Notes:

8. Converted to Sprint shares on July 10, 2013.
 9. Proceeds from the settlement of the foreign currency forward contract of approximately $18.5 billion concluded in relation to acquisition of Sprint.
 10. From August 1 to September 16, 2013 the Company acquired approximately 2% of additional shares of Sprint after its consolidation on July 10, 2013. The relevant invested amount is recorded under cash flow from financing activities.
 11. Outlays from acquisition of Sprint, out of “Decrease from acquisition of control over subsidiaries” in the interim period, amounted to ¥1,427,276 million. This consists of subtracting cash and cash equivalents held by Sprint at the time of acquisition of control (F) from the approximate $18.5 billion in cash investment (B).
- ii. Outlays for purchase of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets amounted to ¥583,633 million. Out of this, Sprint’s outlays for purchase of property, plant and equipment, net and intangible assets (for the period from July 11 to September 30, 2013) amounted to ¥186,423 million. The main reasons of the outlays were capital expenditures in the Mobile Communications and Sprint segments.
 - iii. Increase in restricted cash was ¥299,501 million. This relates to the increase of Sprint’s segregated reserve required in order to obtain a waiver for its financial covenant. Please refer to page 66 “(Note 3) Covenants on interest-bearing debts of Sprint” under “3. Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (6) Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements 9. Interest-bearing debt (1) Components of interest-bearing debt” for details.

(c) Cash Flows from Financing Activities

Net cash provided by financing activities was ¥2,410,281 million (compared with ¥16,187 million used in the same period of the previous fiscal year). The primary components were as follows:

(Items increasing cash flows)

- i. Proceeds from long-term interest-bearing debt of ¥3,769,040 million, mainly resulted from the following:
 - Proceeds from long-term borrowings of ¥2,179,419 million mainly from borrowings of ¥1.98 trillion incepted by SoftBank Corp.
 - Proceeds from issuance of corporate bonds of ¥1,362,682 million. This was mainly $6.5 billion (¥638,300 million) of straight corporate bonds issued by Sprint, and ¥400,000 million of unsecured straight corporate bonds and ¥324,382 million of foreign currency denominated straight corporate bonds issued by SoftBank Corp.
 - Proceeds from sale and leaseback of equipment newly acquired of ¥226,939 million.

(Items decreasing cash flows)

- i. Repayment of long-term interest-bearing debt of ¥1,200,555 million. This mainly included repayment of long-term debt of ¥859,335 million and redemption of corporate bonds of ¥195,624 million.
- ii. Decrease in short-term interest-bearing debt, net resulted in outlay of ¥89,752 million.
- iii. Payment from purchase of subsidiaries' equity from non-controlling interests of ¥49,645 million. This mainly included approximately 2% of additional purchase of Sprint shares, after its consolidation on July 10, 2013, from August 1 to September 16, 2013 which resulted in outlay of ¥49,535 million.

(3) Qualitative Information Regarding Forecast on the Consolidated Operation Results

The Company projects net sales of at least ¥6 trillion, EBITDA^(Note 12) of at least ¥1.5 trillion and operating income of at least ¥1 trillion under IFRSs in the fiscal year ending March 31, 2014 (“FY2013”). This operating income includes gains of ¥253.9 billion in total resulting from the reevaluation of the existing equity interests held in GungHo Online Entertainment, Inc. and WILLCOM, Inc. at fair value when both companies became subsidiaries.

For the fiscal year ending March 31, 2015 the Company projects net sales of ¥7 trillion, EBITDA of ¥2 trillion and operating income of ¥1 trillion. Temporary gains including income from remeasurement relating to business combinations are not anticipated to occur. In combination with continued steady trends in the Mobile Communications segment, the operation results of the Sprint segment are forecast to show marked progress, resulting in continued operating income growth (comparison with FY2013 operating income discounts the abovementioned temporary gains).

Forecast for fiscal years ending March 31, 2014 and March 31, 2015.

	Fiscal year ending March 31, 2014	Fiscal year ending March 31, 2015
Net sales	at least ¥6 trillion	¥7 trillion
EBITDA	at least ¥1.5 trillion	¥2 trillion
Operating income (incl. temporary gain)	at least ¥1 trillion (¥253.9 billion)	¥1 trillion (-)

Note:

12. EBITDA: net sales – cost of sales – selling, general and administrative expenses + depreciation and amortization

2. Notes for Summary Information

(1) Significant changes in scope of consolidation for the six-month period ended September 30, 2013

Specified subsidiary (one company) newly consolidated in the six-month period ended September 30, 2013

Sprint Communications, Inc.

On July 10, 2013, the Company capitalized Sprint Corporation (hereinafter “Sprint”) with approximately $21.6 billion. In the above process, Sprint Nextel Corporation merged with Starburst III, Inc., which used to be a subsidiary of the Company, with Sprint Nextel Corporation being the surviving entity and changed its name to Sprint Communications, Inc. Consequently, Sprint Communications, Inc., the surviving entity, was newly included in scope of consolidation. Starburst II, Inc., which used to own all the shares of Starburst III, Inc., succeeded Sprint’s business and changed its name to Sprint Corporation.

As the amount of common stock of Sprint Communications, Inc. which was included in the scope of consolidation is more than ten-hundreds of the common stock of SoftBank Corp., this is a change of a specified subsidiary with the change in the scope of consolidation.

(2) Changes in Accounting Policies and Accounting Estimates

(Changes in accounting estimates)

For the three-month period ended June 30, 2013, the Company changed assumption and estimates, related to the acquisition of Sprint, and used as material basis for the carrying amount of the convertible bonds issued by Sprint Nextel Corporation and held by a subsidiary, Starburst II, Inc. The corporate bond was converted to the shares of Sprint shares in July 2013.

Please refer to “Note 12. Finance cost, net, (6) Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements, 3. Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements” for details.

(5) Significant Doubt about Going-Concern Assumption

There are no applicable items for the six-month period ended September 30, 2013.

(6) Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements

1. Reporting entity

SoftBank Corp. is a corporation domiciled in Japan. These condensed interim consolidated financial statements are composed of SoftBank Corp. and its subsidiaries (“the Company”). The Company engages in various businesses in the information industry, with its base in the Mobile communications segment, the Sprint segment, the Fixed-Line Telecommunications segment, and the Internet segment. The Sprint segment was added to our business as a result of the following acquisition during the three-month period ended September 30, 2013.

On July 10, 2013, the Company acquired approximately 78% of the shares of Sprint Corporation (previously Sprint Nextel Corporation) (hereinafter (“Sprint”)), and Sprint became a subsidiary of the Company.

In addition, the Company additionally acquired approximately 2% of Sprint shares from August 1 to September 16, 2013. As a result, the Company’s ownership in the outstanding Sprint common stock became approximately 80% as of September 30, 2013.

The details are described in “(2) Sprint” in “Note 5. Business combinations” and in “(1) Description of reportable segment” in “Note 6. Segment information.”

2. Basis of preparation of condensed interim consolidated financial statements

(1) Compliance with IFRSs and first-time adoption

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard 34 “Interim Financial Reporting” pursuant to Article 93 of the Regulation Concerning Terminology, Forms and Preparation Methods of Quarterly Consolidated Financial Statements (Cabinet Office Ordinance No. 64, 2007), as the Company meets the criteria of a “Specified company” defined under Article 1-2, Paragraph 1, Item 1 of the Regulation Concerning Terminology, Forms, and Preparation Methods of Consolidated Financial Statements (Ministry of Finance Ordinance No. 28, 1976).

The Company has prepared the condensed interim consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRSs from the three-month period ended June 30, 2013, the first quarter of the year ending March 31, 2014. The date of transition to IFRSs is April 1, 2012. The Company applied IFRS 1 “First-Time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards” for the transition to IFRSs. The effect of the transition to IFRSs on the Company’s financial position, results of operations, and the cash flows is provided in “Note 15. First-time adoption of IFRSs.”

(2) Basis of measurement

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, except for certain items, such as financial instruments, that are measured at fair value, as explained in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies.”

(3) Presentation currency and unit of currency

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been presented in Japanese yen, which is the currency of the primary economic environment of SoftBank Corp. (“functional currency”), and are rounded off to the nearest million yen.

(4) New standards and interpretations not yet adopted by the Company

The Company has not early adopted standards and interpretations (including IFRS 9 “Financial Instruments”) that have not been enforced as of September 30, 2013, in the preparation of these condensed interim consolidated financial statements. The Company is currently evaluating potential impacts that application of these will have on the consolidated financial statements and it is not possible to estimate the amount of these impacts.

3. Significant accounting policies

The following significant accounting policies have been applied consistently to all periods presented in these condensed interim consolidated financial statements (including the consolidated statement of financial position at the date of transition to IFRSs) unless otherwise mentioned elsewhere.

(1) Basis of consolidation

a. Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an entity that is controlled by SoftBank Corp.

The Company controls an entity when the Company is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity.

Subsidiary's financial statements are consolidated from the date when control is acquired ("acquisition date") until the date when the control is lost.

When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies in line with those used by the Company.

Non-controlling interests consist of those interests at the acquisition date and any adjustments for subsequent changes in those interests.

Total comprehensive income of subsidiaries is generally attributed to the owners of the parent and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

All intragroup balances and transactions and unrealized gain or loss arising from intragroup transactions are eliminated on consolidation.

Changes in the Company's ownership interests in subsidiaries that do not result in the Company's losing control over the subsidiaries are accounted for as equity transactions. The carrying amounts of the Company's interests and the non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their interests in the subsidiaries.

Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognized directly in equity and attributed to owners of the parent.

When SoftBank Corp. loses control of a subsidiary, a gain or loss is calculated as the difference between:

- The aggregate of the fair value of the consideration received and the fair value of any retained interest, and;
- The net carrying amount of the assets (including goodwill), liabilities, and non-controlling interests of the subsidiary when a control is lost.

Any amounts previously recognized in other comprehensive income in relation to the former subsidiaries are reclassified to profit or loss.

b. Associates

An associate is an entity over which SoftBank Corp. has significant influence in the financial and operating policy decisions but does not have control or joint control.

Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method and initially recognized at cost. The investment is adjusted thereafter to recognize the Company's share of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income from the date of acquisition to the date of loss of significant influence.

When the loss of an associate exceeds the Company's interest in that company, long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the net investment in the company are decreased to zero, and no additional loss is recognized except when the Company incurs legal or constructive obligations to or makes payments on behalf of the associate.

Unrealized gains or losses on intercompany transactions with associates are recoded as the subtraction or the addition to the carrying amount of the investments only to the extent of the Company's interests in the associates.

Any excess in the cost of acquisition of an associate over the Company's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities recognized at the date of acquisition is recognized as goodwill, which is included within the carrying amount of the investments accounted for using the equity method.

Because goodwill that forms part of the carrying amount of an investment in associates is not separately recognized, it is not tested for impairment separately. Instead, the entire carrying amount of the investment in associates, including goodwill, is tested for impairment as a single asset whenever objective evidence indicates that the investment may be impaired.

The Company applies equity method to the financial statements of Alibaba Group Holding Limited, an associate of the Company, on a three-month time lag, as it is impracticable to conform the reporting period of Alibaba due to the contract with Alibaba. Adjustments are made for significant transactions or events which occurred during the intervening period and which were publicly announced by Alibaba.

(2) Business combinations

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method at the acquisition date.

The consideration transferred in a business combination is measured as the sum of the acquisition date fair values of the assets transferred by the Company, liabilities incurred by the Company from the former owners of the acquiree, and the equity interests issued by the Company. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

At the acquisition date, the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed are recognized at their fair value, except that:

- Deferred tax assets or liabilities and assets or liabilities related to employee benefits are recognized and measured in accordance with IAS 12 "Income Taxes" and IAS 19 "Employee Benefits," respectively;
- Liabilities or equity instruments related to share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree or share-based payment arrangements of the Company entered into to replace share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree are measured in accordance with IFRS 2 "Share-based Payment" at the acquisition date; and
- Assets or disposal groups that are classified as held for sale are measured in accordance with IFRS 5 "Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations."

The excess of the consideration transferred and the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree over the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired at the acquisition date is recorded as goodwill. If the consideration transferred and the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree is less than the fair value of the identifiable net assets of the acquired subsidiary, the excess is recognized immediately as a bargain purchase gain.

On an acquisition-by-acquisition basis, the Company chooses a measurement basis of non-controlling interests at either fair value or the present ownership instruments' proportionate share in the recognized amounts of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. When a business combination is achieved in stages, the Company's previously held interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date and the resulting gain or loss, if any, is recognized in profit or loss.

Amounts arising from changes in the value of interests in the acquiree prior to the acquisition date that have previously been recognized in other comprehensive income are recognized in profit or loss.

If the initial accounting for a business combination is incomplete by the end of the reporting period in which the combination occurs, the Company reports in its financial statement provisional amounts for the items for which the accounting is incomplete. The Company retrospectively adjusts the provisional amounts recognized at the acquisition date as the adjustment during the measurement period when new information about facts and circumstances that existed as of the acquisition date and, if known, would have affected the recognized amounts for the business combination. The measurement period shall not exceed one year from the acquisition date.

The Company has adopted the exemption in IFRS 1 and elected not to apply IFRS 3 “Business Combinations” retrospectively to business combinations that occurred before April 1, 2012 (the date of transition to IFRSs). Goodwill arising in business combinations that occurred before the date of transition to IFRSs is carried over at the carrying amount under the previous accounting standard (JGAAP) as of the date of transition to IFRSs and recorded by that amount after impairment test.

(3) Foreign currency translation

a. Transactions denominated in foreign currencies

The financial statements of each company in the Company are prepared in the functional currency. Transactions in currencies other than the entity's functional currency (foreign currencies) are translated at the rates of exchange prevailing at the dates of the transactions.

Monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the rates prevailing at the end of the period. Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the rates prevailing at the date when the fair value was measured.

Exchange differences arising from translation are recognized in profit or loss, except for exchange differences arising from non-monetary available-for-sale financial assets through other comprehensive income and cash flow hedges are recognized in other comprehensive income.

b. Foreign operations

For the purposes of presenting consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Company's foreign operations (including the adjustments for goodwill and fair value arising from acquisitions) are translated into Japanese yen using exchange rates prevailing at the end of each period.

Income, expenses and cash flows are translated into Japanese yen by using the average exchange rates for the quarter. However, when their translated results do not approximate the calculation results by the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions, the exchange rates at the transaction dates are used for the translation.

Please refer to “Note 10. Exchange rate” for the exchange rates used in the translation.

Exchange differences arising from translating the financial statements of foreign operations are recognized in other comprehensive income and cumulative differences are included in accumulated other comprehensive income.

These cumulative differences are reclassified from equity to profit or loss when the Company loses control or significant influence over the foreign operation.

With the adoption of the exemption in IFRS 1, the Company transferred all of the accumulated exchange differences to retained earnings at the date of transition to IFRSs.

(4) Financial instruments

a. Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognized when the Company becomes a party to the contract provision of the instrument.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are measured at fair value at initial recognition. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issuance of financial assets and financial liabilities other than financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (“financial assets at FVTPL”) and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss (“financial liabilities at FVTPL”) are added to the fair value of the financial assets or deducted from the fair value of financial liabilities on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets at FVTPL and financial liabilities at FVTPL are recognized in profit or loss.

b. Non-derivative financial assets

Non-derivative financial assets are classified into “financial assets at FVTPL”, “held-to-maturity investments”, “loans and receivables,” and “available-for-sale financial assets.” The classification depends on the nature and purpose of the financial assets and is determined at the time of initial recognition.

All purchase and sales of financial assets in a regular way are recognized and derecognized on a trade date basis. The purchase and sales in a regular way refer to acquiring or disposing financial assets under a contract that requires the delivery of assets within a time frame established by regulation or convention in the marketplace.

(a) Financial assets at FVTPL

The Company designates a financial asset as a financial asset at FVTPL upon initial recognition, if:

- The financial assets are managed in accordance with the Company's documented risk management policy or investment strategy, and:
- Its performance is reviewed on the fair value basis by the Company's management to make decisions about the investment plan.

After initial recognition, financial assets at FVTPL are stated at fair value, with any gains or loss arising from changes in fair value, dividends, or interests received recognized in profit or loss.

(b) Held-to-maturity investments

Non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and fixed maturity dates and that the Company has the positive intent and ability to hold to maturity are classified as “held-to-maturity investments.”

Subsequent to initial recognition, held-to-maturity investments are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method less any impairment. Interest income based on the effective interest rate is recognized in profit or loss.

(c) Loans and receivables

Non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market are classified as “loans and receivables.”

Subsequent to initial recognition, loans and receivables are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment. Interest income based on the effective interest rate is recognized in profit or loss.

(d) Available-for-sale financial assets

Non-derivative financial assets are classified as “available-for-sale financial assets,” if:

- those are designated as “available-for-sale financial assets”; or
- those are classified neither as “financial assets at FVTPL,” “held-to-maturity investments,” nor “loans and receivables.”

Subsequent to initial recognition, available-for-sale financial assets are measured at fair value and gains or losses arising from changes in fair value are recognized in other comprehensive income. Exchange differences arising on monetary financial assets classified as available-for-sale financial assets, interest income calculated using the effective interest method relating to available-for-sale financial assets and dividends are recognized in profit or loss.

(e) Impairment of financial assets

Financial assets, other than those at FVTPL, are assessed for any objective evidence of impairment at the end of each quarter. Financial assets are impaired when there is objective evidence of impairment, as a result of loss events that occurred after the initial recognition of the financial assets and these events have adversely affected the estimated future cash flows of the financial assets that can be reliably estimated.

For available-for-sale equity instruments, a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value below the cost is considered to be objective evidence of impairment. In addition, objective evidence of impairment of all financial assets could include:

- Significant financial difficulty of the issuer or borrower; or
- Breach of contract, such as a default or delinquency in interest or principal payments; or
- High possibilities of borrowers' bankruptcy or entering financial reorganization; or
- Disappearance of an active market for the financial assets.

The Company assesses the existence of objective evidence of impairment individually for separately significant assets or collectively for assets with no individual significance.

When there is objective evidence of impairment on loans and receivables or held-to-maturity investments, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the original effective interest rate, is recognized in profit or loss as an impairment loss. The impairment loss is recognized through the use of an allowance account, and the carrying amount of a loan and receivable is written off against the allowance account when it is considered uncollectible. The carrying amount of held-to-maturity investments is reduced by the impairment loss directly. If, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognized, the previously recognized impairment loss is reversed through profit or loss to the extent that the carrying amount of the financial asset does not exceed what the amortized cost would have been had the impairment not been recognized.

When there is objective evidence that an available-for-sale financial asset is impaired, previously recognized accumulated other comprehensive income is transferred to profit or loss. With regards to equity instruments classified as available-for-sale financial assets, impairment losses are not reversed.

(f) Derecognition of financial assets

The Company derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset.

c. Non-derivative financial liabilities

The Company's non-derivative financial liabilities include interest-bearing debt and trade and other payables. These financial liabilities are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, subsequent to initial recognition.

The Company derecognizes financial liabilities when the Company's obligations are discharged, canceled or expired.

d. Derivatives and hedge accounting

(a) Derivatives

The Company is engaged in derivative transactions, including foreign currency forward contract and interest rate swaps in order to manage its exposure to foreign exchange rate and interest rate risks.

Derivatives are initially recognized at fair value at the date the derivative contracts are entered into and are subsequently measured at their fair values at the end of each quarter. Changes in the fair value of derivative are recognized in profit or loss immediately unless the derivative is designated and effective as a hedging instrument. Derivative financial assets not designated as hedging instruments are classified into “financial assets at FVTPL” and derivative financial liabilities not designated as hedging instruments are classified into “financial liabilities at FVTPL.”

(b) Hedge accounting

The Company designates certain derivative transactions as hedging instruments and accounts for them as cash flow hedges.

At the inception of the hedge, the Company formally designates and documents the hedge relationship qualifying for hedge accounting, along with its risk management objectives and its strategy for undertaking various hedge transactions. At the inception of the hedge and on an ongoing basis, the Company evaluates whether the hedging instrument is highly effective in offsetting changes in fair values or cash flows of the relevant hedged item.

The effective portion of changes in the fair value of derivatives that are designated and qualifying as cash flow hedges is recognized in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity. Accumulated other comprehensive income is transferred to profit or loss through a line item relating to the hedged item in the consolidated statements of income, in the periods when the cash flows from the hedged item affect profit or loss. Any ineffective portion of changes in fair value of derivatives is recognized immediately in profit or loss.

When the hedged forecasted transaction subsequently results in the recognition of a non-financial asset or a non-financial liability, the Company removes the associated gains or losses previously recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income and includes them in the initial amount of the cost of the non-financial asset or non-financial liability (Basis adjustment).

Hedge accounting is discontinued when the Company revokes the hedging relationship, when the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated or exercised or when hedge no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting. When hedge accounting is discontinued, any gains or losses recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income remains in equity and is reclassified to profit or loss when the forecasted transaction is ultimately recognized in profit or loss. When a forecasted transaction is no longer expected to occur, the gains or losses recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income is reclassified immediately to profit or loss.

(c) Embedded derivatives

Derivatives embedded in non-derivative host contracts (“embedded derivatives”) are separated from the host contracts and accounted for as separate derivatives when their economic characteristics and risks are not closely related to those of the host contracts and the whole financial instruments, including embedded derivatives, are not measured at FVTPL.

e. Compound instruments

Compound instruments issued by the Company (convertible bond) are classified as liability and equity components in accordance with their contractual arrangements. Upon initial recognition of compound instruments, the liability component is measured based on the fair value of similar liabilities with no equity conversion option, and the equity component is measured as the difference between the fair value of the compound instrument as a whole and the fair value of the liability component.

Transaction costs are allocated to the liability and equity components in proportion to the initial carrying amounts and the cost related to the equity component is deducted from equity.

Subsequent to initial recognition, the liability component is measured on an amortized cost basis using the effective interest method. The equity component is not measured subsequent to initial recognition.

f. Offsetting financial assets and financial liabilities

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amounts are presented in the statement of financial position when, and only when, the Company currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognized amounts, and intends either to settle on a net basis or to realize the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

(5) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash, demand deposits and short-term investments with maturities of three-months or less that are readily convertible to cash and subject to insignificant risk of change in value.

(6) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Inventories mainly consist of mobile handsets and accessories. Their costs comprise all costs of purchase and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. The costs are mainly computed on the moving-average method

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

(7) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are measured on a historical cost basis, less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. Historical cost includes costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset and the initial estimate of costs related to disassembly, retirement and site restoration.

Property, plant and equipment are depreciated mainly using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of each component. The depreciable amount is computed as the cost of an asset, less its residual value. Land and construction in progress are not depreciated.

The estimated useful lives of major component of property, plant and equipment are as follows:

Buildings and structures
Buildings	30 - 50 years
Other	5 - 15 years
Telecommunications equipment
Wireless equipment, switching equipment, and other network equipment	3 - 15 years
Towers	15 - 42 years
Other	5 - 40 years
Other	2 - 10 years

The depreciation methods, useful lives, and residual values of assets are reviewed at the end of each fiscal year, and applied prospectively as a change in an accounting estimate if there is such a change.

Assets held under finance leases are depreciated over their estimated useful lives when there is certainty that ownership will be obtained by the end of the lease term. However, when there is no certainty that ownership will be obtained by the end of the lease term, assets are depreciated over the shorter of the lease term or their estimated useful lives.

(8) Goodwill

The measurement of goodwill upon its initial recognition is described in “(2) Business combinations” in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies. Goodwill is measured at cost less accumulated impairment losses.

Goodwill is not amortized, and is tested for impairment when there is an indication of impairment in cash-generating units to which goodwill has been allocated, and annually regardless of any indication of impairment. The Company's policy for impairment on goodwill is described in "(11) Impairment of tangible assets, intangible assets and goodwill" in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies."

The Company's policy for goodwill arising on the acquisition of an associate is described in "(1) Basis of consolidation" in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies."

(9) Intangible assets

Intangible assets are measured on a historical cost basis at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses.

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured at cost upon initial recognition. Intangible assets acquired in a business combination are recognized separately from goodwill upon initial recognition and are measured at fair value at the acquisition date. Any internally generated research and development expenditure is recognized as an expense in the period in which it is incurred, except for expenditures on development activities eligible for capitalization (internally generated intangible assets). The amount initially recognized for internally generated intangible assets is the sum of the expenditure incurred from the date when the intangible asset first meets all of the capitalization criteria to the date the development is completed.

There are intangible assets with finite useful lives and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives.

The intangible assets with finite useful lives are amortized over the estimated useful lives. Amortization of the customer relationships is calculated by the sum-of-the-digits method and intangible assets with finite useful lives other than customer relationships are amortized by the straight-line method.

The estimated useful lives of major categories of intangible assets with finite useful lives are as follows:

Software
Software related to wireless equipment	5 - 10 years
Other	3 - 5 years
Customer relationships	4 - 9 years
Favorable lease contracts	3 - 23 years
Game titles	3 years
Trademarks (with finite useful lives)	33 years
Other	3 -20 years

Amortization methods, useful lives, and residual values of assets are reviewed at the end of each fiscal year and applied prospectively as a change in an accounting estimate if there is such a change.

Favorable lease contracts are recognized as intangible assets based on the estimated fair value of favorable portion of future cash flows, at the time of business combinations if the terms of operating lease contracts in which the acquiree is the lessee are favorable compared to market terms.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are as follows:

- Licenses using specific frequency spectrum granted by Federal Communications Commission ("FCC Licenses")
- Trademarks (with indefinite useful lives)

As long as the Company acts within the requirements and constraints of the regulatory authorities, the renewal and extension of FCC Licenses are reasonably certain at minimal cost. Since any technology being developed that would render this spectrum obsolete is not known, it is determined that licenses, for which the Company has an expectation of future use, are indefinite-lived intangible assets. "Sprint" and "Boost Mobile" trademarks have also been identified as indefinite-lived intangible assets as they can be legally used continuously as long as the business continues.

The intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and the intangible assets that are not yet available for use are not amortized. Refer to “(11) Impairment of tangible assets, intangible assets and goodwill” in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies” for impairment of intangible assets.

(10) Leases

Leases are classified as finance leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of assets to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

The assessment of whether an arrangement is a lease or contains a lease is made on a basis of all of the facts and circumstances at the inception of the arrangement.

a. Finance leases

(The Company as lessee)

The Company has leased assets, including the FUKUOKA YAHUOKU! DOME, wireless equipment, switching equipment, power supply systems and transmission facilities. At the inception of lease, the Company initially recognizes finance leases as assets and the lease obligation at the amount equal to the fair value of the leased property or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments.

Subsequent to initial recognition, the accounting policy for assets held under finance leases are consistent with that of assets that are owned. Lease payments are apportioned between finance expenses and reduction of the lease obligation so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability.

b. Operating leases

(The Company as lessee)

Gross operating lease payments are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease.

(The Company as lessor)

Gross operating lease revenues are recognized as revenue on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease.

(11) Impairment of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and goodwill

a. Impairment of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets

At the end of each quarter, the Company determines whether there is any indication that property, plant and equipment and intangible assets may be impaired.

If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. A cash-generating unit is the smallest identifiable group of assets that generates cash inflows that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets.

The intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and the intangible assets that are not yet available for use are tested for impairment annually regardless of whether there is any indication of impairment.

The recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell or value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pretax discount rate that reflects the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset.

If the recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset or cash-generating unit is reduced to its recoverable amount, and an impairment loss is recognized in loss.

b. Impairment of goodwill

At the end of each quarter, the Company determines whether there is any indication that goodwill may be impaired.

Goodwill is allocated to each of the cash-generating units or groups of cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the synergies arising from the combination, and it is tested for impairment annually regardless of any indication of impairment, and when there is an indication that the cash-generating unit may be impaired, and if, at the time of the impairment test, the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the cash-generating unit or groups of cash-generating units and then to the other assets pro rata based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit or groups of cash-generating units.

Any impairment loss for goodwill is recognized directly in loss and is not reversed in subsequent periods.

c. Reversal of impairment

At the end of each quarter, the Company determines whether there is any indication that an impairment loss recognized in prior years for assets other than goodwill have decreased or extinguished. If such indication of a reversal of an impairment loss exists, the recoverable amount of the asset or cash-generating unit is estimated. If the recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is estimated to be greater than its carrying amount, a reversal of an impairment loss is recognized, to the extent the increased carrying amount does not exceed the lower of the recoverable amount or the carrying amount (net of depreciation and amortization) that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized.

(12) Retirement benefits

Defined contribution plans are post-employment benefit plans under which an employer pays fixed contributions into a separate fund and will have no legal or constructive obligations to pay further contributions. Defined benefit plans are post-employment benefit plans other than defined contribution plans.

The Company primarily adopts defined contribution pension plans for its employees.

SoftBank Mobile Corp. and SoftBank Telecom Corp. have frozen the defined benefit lump-sum plans as of March 2007 and 2006 respectively. Liabilities for the frozen defined benefit lump-sum plans are recognized as defined benefit liabilities until they are paid in the form of lump sum at the time of future retirement of employees.

Sprint has frozen the defined benefit pension plans as of December 2005. Liabilities for defined benefit pension plans are recognized as defined benefit liabilities until they are paid as pension after the time of retirement of employees.

a. Defined contribution plans

Contributions paid for defined contribution plans are recognized as expenses in the period in which the employees render the related service. Contributions payable are recognized as liabilities.

b. Defined benefit plans

The liability recognized in respect of the defined benefit plans (the defined benefit liability) is the present value of the defined benefit obligation less the fair value of plan assets at the end of the quarter.

The defined benefit obligation is determined by independent actuaries using the projected unit credit method, and its present value is determined applying a discount rate based on the yield curve of high-quality corporate bonds over the approximate period of the benefit payments.

Defined benefit cost includes service cost, net interest on the net defined benefit liability (asset), and re-measurements of the net defined benefit liability (asset). Service cost and net interest are recognized in net profit or loss. Net interest is determined using the discount rate described above.

The liabilities for defined benefit plans frozen due to the transition to defined contribution plans are calculated on the basis of retirement benefits vested at the time of the transition of the plans. Therefore, service cost is not incurred for those defined benefit plans.

In the Company, remeasurements, which comprises actuarial gains and losses and the return on plan asset (excluding amounts included in net interest), are recognized in other comprehensive income and transferred to retained earnings immediately.

The defined benefit liability at the end of each quarter end is based on estimated calculation with reasonable estimate, considering the actuarial calculation used at prior fiscal year end.

(13) Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Company will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

Provisions are measured using the estimated future cash flows, discounted using a pretax rate reflecting the time value of money and the specific risks of the liability, after taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation at the end of the quarter.

The Company recognizes asset retirement obligations and restructuring provision as provisions.

Restructuring provisions are recognized when the Company has a detailed formal plan for the restructuring and has raised a valid expectation to those who will be affected that the Company will carry out the restructuring by starting to implement the plan or announcing its main features of the plan.

(14) Treasury stock

When the Company reacquires its own equity share capital (“treasury stock”), the consideration paid, including any directly attributable increments costs (net of income taxes), is deducted from equity. No gain or loss is recognized on the purchase, sale, or cancellation of the treasury stock. The difference between the carrying amount and the consideration on sale is recognized as additional paid-in capital.

(15) Share-based payments

The Company has an equity-settled stock option scheme as an incentive plan for directors and employees. Stock options are measured at fair value at the grant date. The fair value of stock options is computed mainly using the Black-Scholes model and the Monte Carlo simulation.

The fair value of stock options determined at the grant date is expensed over the vesting period, based on the estimate of stock options that will eventually vest, with a corresponding increase in equity. The Company regularly reviews the assumptions made and revises estimates of the number of options that are expected to vest, when necessary.

The Company has adopted the exemption in IFRS 1 and elected not to apply IFRS 2 “Share-based Payment” for a part of share-based payments vested prior to April 1, 2012 (the date of transition to IFRSs).

(16) Revenue

The Company’s accounting policy for revenue recognition by major categories is as follows:

a. Mobile Communications service and sales of mobile handsets

The Company enters into a contract with customers, mainly through dealers, to provide mobile telecommunications services to customers and also sells mobile handsets and accessories to dealers.

In the Mobile Communications service, revenues are mainly generated from basic monthly charges, telecom service (“revenues from the mobile telecommunications service”) and other fees.

The mobile telecommunications services are recognized as revenue when services are provided to customers, based upon basic flat-rate monthly charges plus usage of traffic. Discounts are deducted from revenues from monthly mobile telecommunications services as a discount of mobile telecommunications charges. Points granted to customers through the customer royalty program, based on the actual charges of mobile telecommunications services, are deferred at their fair values of benefits to be exchanged based on the estimated point utilization rate and recognized as revenues upon customers' utilizing those points.

Activation fees are deferred upon entering into the contract and recognized as revenues over the estimated average contract period. Upgrade fees are deferred upon entering into the contract and recognized as revenues over the estimated average usage period of handsets with the customers. Direct costs related to activation are deferred to the extent of the activation fees and upgrade fees and are amortized over the respective same period.

Revenues from the sale of mobile handsets and accessories are recognized when mobile handsets are delivered to dealers, which is when with risk and economic value are deemed to be transferred. Commission fees paid to dealers related to the sales of mobile handsets are deducted from revenues.

The Company enters into contracts directly with customers to sell mobile handsets to customers. In this case, the total amount of revenues from the mobile telecommunication services and the sales of mobile handsets are allocated to mobile handsets and telecommunication service on the basis of fair value ratio. However, maximum amount of revenues recognized by the sale of mobile handsets are set by the amounts received from customers from the sales of mobile handsets. Activation fees and upgrade fees are recognized as revenues in full amount to the extent of the amounts received by customers.

b. Fixed-line Telecommunications service

In the Fixed-line Telecommunications service, revenues are generated mainly from fixed-line telecommunications services, which consist of voice communications and digital data transmission services, Internet provider charges, ADSL service fees, IP telephony service fees, and the usage of the network ("revenues from fixed-line telecommunications service").

Revenues from fixed-line telecommunications services are recognized as revenues when services are provided to customers, based upon fixed monthly charges plus the usage of the network.

c. Internet service

In Internet service, revenues are generated mainly from premium advertising, promotion advertising, information listing service, commission of e-commerce transaction, and revenues from membership.

Revenues from premium advertising are recognized over the period in which advertisements are shown on the web site. Revenue from promotion advertising is recognized when a user clicks on promotion advertisement. Revenues from information listing service are recognized over the period in which these services are shown on the website. Revenues from commissions of e-commerce transactions are recognized when the transactions occur. Membership revenues are recognized over the period in which the memberships are valid.

(17) Sales commission fees

The Company pays sales commission fees when dealers sell the Company's mobile handsets to customers or acquire and retain engagement of telecommunications service between the Company and customers. Commission fees related to the sales of mobile handsets are deducted from the revenues from the sales of mobile handsets. Commission fees related to the acquisition and retention of engagement of telecommunications service are recognized as selling, general and administrative expenses.

(18) Borrowing cost

Of borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of a qualifying asset, amounts which are generated by the time when the asset is ready for its intended use are capitalized as part of the cost of that asset. A qualifying asset is an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for use.

All other borrowing costs are recognized as an expense in the period when they are incurred.

(19) Income tax

Income tax expense is composed of current and deferred taxes, and recognized in profit or loss, except for taxes related to business combinations and taxes related to items that are recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to or recovered from the taxation authorities, using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the period.

Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses, and unused tax credits can be utilized. The recoverability of deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each quarter. Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognized for:

- temporary differences arising from the initial recognition of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the accounting profit nor the taxable profit, other than in a business combination;
- taxable temporary differences arising from the initial recognition of goodwill;
- deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, where it is not probable that the temporary difference will reverse in the foreseeable future or where there will not be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilize the benefits of the temporary differences; and
- taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, where the Company is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the quarter.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if the Company has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities, and income taxes are levied by the same taxation authority on the same taxable entity.

Income tax expense recorded in the respective interim period is calculated based on the estimated effective tax rate.

(20) Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net income attributable to owners of the parent by the weighted-average number of common stocks outstanding for the period.

Diluted earnings per share assumes full conversion of the issued potential stocks having a dilutive effect, with an adjustment for net income attributable to owners of the parent and the weighted-average number of common stocks outstanding for the period.

4. Significant judgments and estimates

In preparing condensed interim consolidated financial statements under IFRSs, management makes judgments, estimates, and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and carrying amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue, and expenses. These estimates and underlying assumptions are based on the management's best judgments, through their evaluation of various factors that were considered reasonable as of the period-end, based on historical experience and by collecting available information. By the nature of its estimates or assumptions, however, actual results in the future may differ from those estimates or assumptions.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are continuously reviewed. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised as well as in the future periods. Estimates and underlying assumptions that involve significant risks in making material adjustments to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the next period include the following:

- Estimates of fair value of assets acquired and the liabilities assumed in a business combination ((2) of "Note 3. Significant accounting policies" and "Note 5. Business combinations")
- Fair value measurement of available-for-sale financial assets ((4) of Note 3)
- Estimates of forecasted transactions related to hedge accounting ((4) of Note 3)
- Estimates for amortization period and impairment of financial assets measured at amortized cost ((4) of Note 3 and "Note 12. Finance cost, net")
- Fair value measurement of derivatives (including embedded derivatives) ((4) of Note 3 and Note 12)
- Estimates of useful life of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets ((7) and (9) of Note 3)
- Estimates for impairment of property, plant and equipment, goodwill and intangible assets ((11) of Note 3)
- Assessment of recoverability of deferred tax assets ((19) of Note 3)

5. Business combinations

For the six-month period ended September 30, 2013

(1) GungHo Online Entertainment, Inc.

a. Overview of consolidation

Masayoshi Son, chairman and CEO of the SoftBank Corp., has entered into a Memorandum of Understanding on Exercise of Voting Rights for Deferment of Execution of Pledges (the "MOU") with respect to the shares of GungHo Online Entertainment, Inc. ("GungHo") on April 1, 2013, with Heartis Inc. (the "Heartis"; percentage of voting interest: 18.5%), which is the second largest shareholder of GungHo and Taizo Son's asset management company and of which Taizo Son, chairman of GungHo, is the representative director. Under the MOU, in order to have Son Holdings Inc., of which Masayoshi Son is a director and which is a Masayoshi Son's asset management company, defer the execution of pledges over the shares of GungHo held by Heartis, Heartis has agreed, effective as of April 1, 2013, to the effect that at the shareholders meeting of GungHo, Heartis will exercise the voting rights for all of the shares of GungHo it holds in accordance with Masayoshi Son's directions. Also, a subsidiary of the Company, SoftBank Mobile Corp., undertook the Tender Offer from April 1, 2013 to April 26, 2013 and acquired 6.37% of GungHo shares (purchase price: ¥24,976 million). The Company and Heartis together came to represent the majority of the voting rights in GungHo's shares (percentage of voting interest: 58.50%) and GungHo Online Entertainment became a subsidiary of the Company from an equity method associate.

With this transaction, the Company expects that the Company will be able to enhance mobile content, and to improve the efficiency in operation of the mobile communications business and profitability competitiveness, by combining smartphone-focused development capability and infrastructure held by the Company, and planning and creating capability in the smartphone game industry held by GungHo.

(Business Description)

- (a) Planning, development, operation and distribution of Internet online game
- (b) Planning, development and sales of mobile content
- (c) Planning, development and sales of character goods
- (d) Planning, development and distribution of other entertainment content

(2) Sprint

a. Overview of consolidation

On October 15, 2012, the Company and Sprint entered into a series of definitive agreements under which the Company will invest in Sprint (the "transaction" in this section (2)). After the completion of negotiations, the Company and Sprint agreed to amend a portion of the transaction on June 11, 2013.

On July 10, 2013, SoftBank Corp. capitalized, through a wholly owned subsidiary, Starburst I, Inc., Sprint with an additional approximately $18.5 billion and the total investment of SoftBank Corp. amounted to approximately $21.6 billion, including approximately $3.1 billion of corporate bonds with stock acquisition rights issued by Sprint Nextel Corporation (the "Bond") invested by Starburst II, Inc. on October 22, 2012. Of the invested amounts of $21.6 billion, approximately $16.6 billion was distributed to existing individual Sprint's shareholders and $5 billion is used to strengthen Sprint. The Bond held by Starburst II, Inc. was converted into shares before the completion.

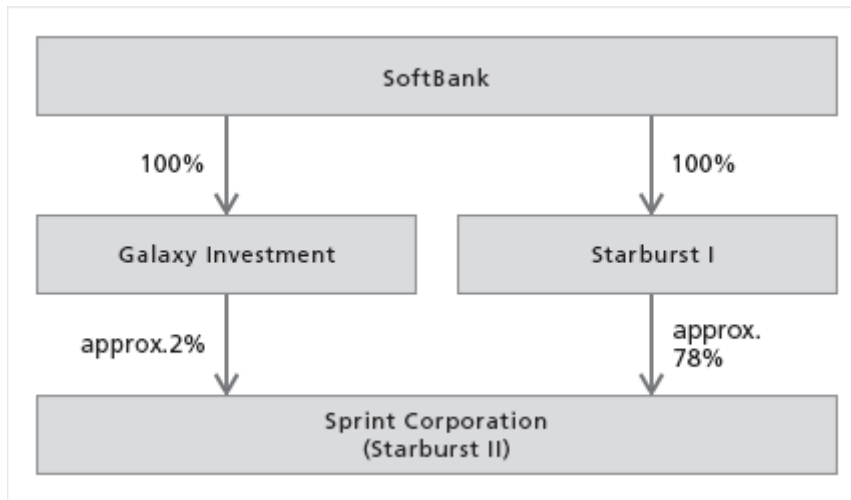

Through this transaction, approximately 72% of Sprint Nextel Corporation shares were acquired for $7.65 per share in cash, and the remaining shares were converted into Sprint shares on a one-to-one basis, which succeeded Sprint Nextel Corporation and became listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

As a result of the transaction, Starburst I, Inc., owns approximately 78% of the shares of Sprint and Sprint became a subsidiary of SoftBank Corp.

Prior to the transaction, Clearwire Corporation ("Clearwire"), a company providing high-speed wireless communication services in the US, became a wholly owned subsidiary of Sprint on July 9, 2013.

From August 1, 2013 to September 16, 2013, SoftBank Corp., through Galaxy Investment Holdings, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary in the U.S., additionally purchased 2% of the shares of Sprint (purchase price: approximately $500 million). As a result, the Company's ownership in the outstanding Sprint common stock became approximately 80% as of September 30, 2013.

(Structure as of September 30, 2013)

b. Purposes of consolidation

- (a) Enables the Company to establish an operating base as one of the largest mobile Internet companies in the world. The combined subscriber base will be one of the largest between the U.S. and Japan*.
- (b) Enables the Company to leverage its deep expertise in smartphones and next-generation mobile networks, and its track record of success in competing in mature markets with large incumbents, to enhance competitiveness of Sprint in the U.S.
- (c) Provides Sprint $5.0 billion of new capital for its mobile network, strategic investments, and balance sheet as part of its continued efforts to fortify its operating base towards future growth.

Note:

Based on Telecommunications Carriers Association (“TCA”) data and disclosed material by relevant companies as of the end of June 2013.

6. Segment information

(1) Description of reportable segments

The Company's reportable segments are components of business activities for which discrete financial information is available, and such information is regularly reviewed by the Company's board of directors in order to make decisions about the allocation of the resources and assess its performance.

The Company's segments are four segments, the Mobile Communications segment, the Sprint segment, the Fixed-line Telecommunications segment, and the Internet segment.

The Mobile Communications segment provides, mainly through SoftBank Mobile Corp., mobile communication services, and sale of mobile handsets and accessories.

The Sprint segment provides, through Sprint, mobile communication services, sale of mobile handsets and accessories accompanying the mobile communication services, and the fixed-line telecommunication services in the U.S.

The Fixed-line Telecommunications segment provides, mainly through SoftBank Telecom Corp., telecommunication services such as data communication and fixed-line telephone service for corporate customers. It also provides, mainly through SoftBank BB Corp., broadband service for individual customers.

The Internet segment provides, mainly through Yahoo Japan Corporation, Internet-based advertising operations.

The Sprint segment is newly established from the three-month period ended September 30, 2013 by the consolidation of Sprint in July 2013.

The Company previously had four segments, the Mobile Communications segments, the Broadband the Infrastructure segments, the Fixed-line Telecommunications segments, and the Internet Culture segments until the year ended March 31, 2013. However, with the consolidation of eAccess Ltd. in January 2013, GungHo in April 2013, and Sprint in July 2013, the Company changed its reportable segments from the three-month period ended June 30, 2013 as the business size and region of the Company changes significantly.

For the three-month period ended June 30, 2013, the previous Fixed-line Telecommunications segment and the Broadband Infrastructure segment were integrated and included in the Domestic Fixed-line Telecommunications Segment. Also the previous Mobile Communications segment was presented as the Domestic Mobile Communications segment and the previous Internet Culture segment was presented as the Internet Segment. Distribution business of SoftBank BB Corp. was previously included in "Others." However it was included in the Domestic Mobile Communications segment, considering the stronger connection with mobile communications.

For the three-month period ended September 30, 2013, the Company changed the names of the segments. The previous Domestic Mobile Communications is presented as the Mobile Communications. Also, the previous Domestic Fixed-line Telecommunications is presented as the Fixed-line Telecommunications. Only the names of the segments were changed, not the definition of the segments.

Segment information for the six-month period ended September 30, 2012, and for the three-month period ended September 30, 2012 is presented in accordance with the reportable segment after the change.

(2) Net sales and income of reportable segments

The accounting policies of the reportable segments are the same as the Company's accounting policies described in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies." Income of reportable segments is based on income excluding "Income from remeasurement relating to business combination" and "Other operating income (loss)" from operating income as follows:

Segment income = (net sales – cost of sales – selling, general and administrative expenses) in each segment

Intersegment transactions are conducted under the same general business conditions as applied for external customers.

The following is the information about the Company's net sales and income by reportable segments. The Company also discloses "EBITDA (segment income before depreciation and amortization)" by reportable segments.

For the six-month period ended September 30, 2012

Notes:

3. Covenants on interest-bearing debts of Sprint

Major covenants on the interest-bearing debt issued by Sprint are as follows:

- a. Holders of a portion ($17.6 billion) of bond issued by Sprint are provided with the right to require Sprint to repurchase the notes if there is a change of control or if there is a decline, to a certain extent, in ratings of the applicable notes by the Rating Services. Also, holders of the Clearwire bond ($3.2 billion) are provided with the right to require the repurchase of the notes if a change of control triggering event occurs.
- b. It is required that as of the last day of each quarter, Sprint's ratio of total indebtedness* to EBITDA (as defined) should not exceed a threshold level. Exceeding the ratio could result in the maturities being accelerated. The limit for the ratio was 6.25 to 1.0 as of September 30, 2013.

*Total indebtedness: the sum of Sprint's outstanding debt (which does not include trade payable incurred in the ordinary course of business) and guarantee of indebtedness, with certain adjustments such as excluding amounts agreed based on contracts with lenders.

On September 11, 2013, Sprint issued $2.25 billion aggregate principal amount of 7.250% Notes due 2021 and $4.25 billion aggregate principal amount of 7.875% Notes due 2023. After giving effect to the above, Sprint would have exceeded this threshold by a significant level at September 30, 2013. Accordingly, Sprint obtained a limited waiver from each of the lenders under the credit facilities, which should enable compliance with this financial covenant until December 31, 2013. However, as a requirement under the waivers, Sprint must maintain a segregated reserve account of approximately $3.5 billion until the earlier of the time existing Clearwire indebtedness is prepaid, redeemed or otherwise retired, or December 31, 2013 at which time the waivers will have expired. As the aggregate of approximately $414 million of Clearwire indebtedness was already retired on September 11, 2013 and September 26, 2013, the balance of restricted cash was approximately $3.1 billion as of September 30, 2013.

Furthermore, on October 24, 2013, Sprint issued notices to redeem on December 1, 2013, all of the outstanding principal amount (approximately $2.4 billion) of Clearwire's 12% Senior Secured Notes due 2015, as well as $325 million of 12% Second-Priority Senior Secured Notes due 2017.

Restricted cash balance noted above is included under “Other financial assets” of the current assets of the condensed interim consolidated statements of Financial Position. Cash inflow is stated as “Increase in Restricted Cash” under investing activities in the condensed interim consolidated statement of cash flows.

(2) Components of increase (decrease) in short-term interest-bearing debt

The components of “increase (decrease) in short-term interest-bearing debt, net” in the condensed interim consolidated statements of cash flows are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
	Six-month period ended September 30, 2012	Six-month period ended September 30, 2013

Net increase of commercial paper	-	42,000
Total	97,638	(89,752)

Note :

The Company borrowed permanent loan in September 2013 and refinanced the bridge loan which was made for the consolidation of Sprint. Increase and decrease in short-term borrowings for the six-month ended September 30, 2013 includes increase of borrowings of ¥1,034.9 billion on July 10, 2013 from the bridge loan and decrease of borrowings by the repayment of that bridge loan of ¥1,284.9 billion (including the amount of repayment of ¥250 billion on December 21, 2012).

11. Equity

(1) Additional paid-in capital

For the six-month period ended September 30, 2012

Alibaba Group Holding Limited, an associate accounted for using the equity method, acquired the shares of Alibaba.com Limited, a subsidiary of Alibaba Group Holding Limited, through its takeover bid in June 2012 and conducted the privatization of Alibaba.com Limited. The Company's additional paid-in capital decreased by ¥51,208 million as Alibaba Group Holding Limited treated this as the change in the interests in controlled subsidiary, decreasing its additional paid-in capital.

(2) Accumulated other comprehensive income

The components of accumulated other comprehensive income are as follows:

Notes:

1. Stock acquisition rights in the convertible bonds issued by Sprint Nextel Corporation and undertaken by Starburst II on October 22, 2012, were reported at fair value as a derivative, being bifurcated from the host contracts as it is classified as embedded derivatives and were recorded in "Other financial Assets" in the condensed interim consolidated statements of financial position. As the Company exercised the relevant stock acquisition right and the Company derecognized the derivatives, a derivative loss of ¥16,356 million was recorded during the six-month period ended September 30, 2013.

With regard to the host contract (the bonds), the amount of payment less the fair value of the embedded derivative at inception of the bond was recorded in the consolidated statement of financial position at inception. This deduction amount is accreted using the effective interest method with corresponding adjustments to interest income. Initially, the expected remaining accretion period for the bond discount was seven years based on the contract term of the bond. However, based on the approval for the acquisition at the shareholders' meeting of Sprint on June 25, 2013, the Company changed the estimate of the expected remaining term until the completion of the acquisition. During the six-month period ended September 30, 2013, the Company recognized interest income of ¥16,219 million. The increase of interest income from the reflection of this change in the expected remaining term of the bond was ¥15,568 million.

2. (1) Consolidation of Supercell Oy

a. Overview of consolidation

SoftBank Corp. and, its subsidiary, GungHo have entered into an agreement with Supercell Oy ("Supercell"), a mobile game company headquartered in Finland, its shareholders and the representative of such shareholders on October 15, 2013. Under the agreement, SoftBank Corp. and GungHo will establish a special purpose company in Finland, SoftBank Corp. indirectly investing approximately $1.224 billion (investing ratio 80%) and, GungHo indirectly investing $0.306 billion (investing ratio 20%). Through this special purpose company, SoftBank Corp. and GungHo will invest a total of $1.53 billion (approximately ¥151.5 billion¹) in Supercell (the "Transaction" in this section (1)), and will hold 51% of Supercell's voting stock.

The Transaction is expected to be completed on October 31, 2013 and Supercell will become a subsidiary of SoftBank Corp.

Notes :

1. Converted at USD = JPY 99

b. Reasons for the Transaction

Supercell is a mobile game company headquartered in Finland. This new strategic partnership with SoftBank Corp. and GungHo will help accelerate Supercell’s goal of becoming the “the first truly global games company.”

GungHo started its online game business in 2002, and it has since then accumulated significant expertise and produced notable results in the development and operation of online games. Through the Transaction GungHo will leverage Supercell’s position among the apps in the Games category of the App Store and marketing power abroad to enhance its global expansion.

SoftBank Corp. acquired Sprint in July 2013, expanding its business operations from Japan to the U.S. with GungHo and Supercell as drivers in content services, the SoftBank Group continues to strive toward the goal of becoming the “No.1 mobile Internet company.”

(2) Consolidation of Brightstar Corp.

a. Overview of consolidation

SoftBank Corp. has entered into agreements on October 18, 2013, with the major shareholders of mobile device distributor Brightstar Corp. of the United States (“Brightstar”) pursuant to which SoftBank Corp. will acquire Brightstar shares (the “Transaction” in this section (2)).

In the transaction, SoftBank Corp. will invest a total of $1.26 billion (approximately ¥124.7 billion) into certain indirectly wholly-owned U.S. subsidiaries (the “U.S. subsidiary”). SoftBank Corp. will, in exchange for $400 million of the above investment, receive newly-issued common shares of the U.S. subsidiary, and in exchange for the remaining $860 million of SoftBank Corp.’s investment, SoftBank Corp. will receive non-voting preferred shares of the U.S. subsidiary that have an aggregate liquidation preference of $860 million, and a warrant that provides SoftBank Corp. with the rights to acquire a number of common shares of the same subsidiary that would raise SoftBank Corp.’s ownership of the common shares of the subsidiary to approximately 70%, for de minimis value, over 5 years (the “Warrant”). The U.S. subsidiary will acquire all common and preferred shares (including payment of accrued dividends) of Brightstar from existing shareholders in exchange for approximately $1.105 billion (approx. ¥109.4 billion¹⁾) and common shares of such U.S. Subsidiary representing an approximate 43% of the common shares issued.

As a result of the Transaction, SoftBank Corp. will own approximately 57% of the voting rights and common shares of the U.S. subsidiary that will own 100% of Brightstar, and Mr. Marcelo Claure, Chairman and CEO of Brightstar, owns approximately 43%. (The Transaction is expected to be completed from November to December 2013). As a result, Brightstar will become a subsidiary of SoftBank Corp.

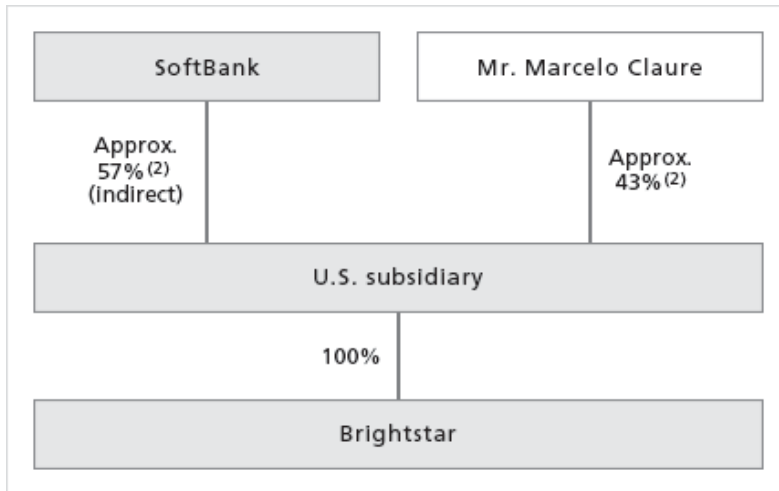

The U.S. subsidiary will use approximately $1.105 billion out of SoftBank Corp.’s total investment of $1.26 billion to complete the Brightstar share purchases noted above (including payment of accrued dividends), and the remaining approximately $155 million of SoftBank Corp.’s investment will be contributed by the U.S. subsidiary to Brightstar in order to fund, among others, ongoing corporate activities.

SoftBank Corp. plans to gradually exercise the Warrant to increase its ownership in the U.S. subsidiary to approximately 70% of the voting power, and common stock, over the five year period.

15. First-time adoption of IFRSs

(1) Transition to IFRSs financial reporting

The Company first prepared condensed interim consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRSs from the three-month period ended June 30, 2013, which is the first quarter of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2014. Accounting policies adopted by the Company are described in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies.”

The latest consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with JGAAP are for the year ended March 31, 2013. The date of transition to IFRSs is April 1, 2012.

IFRS 1, in principle, requires first-time adopters to apply IFRSs retrospectively.

However, as exceptions, the retrospective application of some aspects of IFRSs is prohibited, and they shall be applied prospectively from the date of transition to IFRSs. The following exceptions are applicable to the Company:

a. Accounting estimates

With regards to accounting estimates used for consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRSs, new information received afterward is not reflected, for the estimates used under IFRSs to be consistent with estimates used when the financial statements under JGAAP were prepared.

b. Non-controlling interests

The Company applies the following requirements of IFRS 10 “Consolidated Financial Statements” prospectively from the date of transition to IFRSs:

- the requirement that total comprehensive income is attributed to the owners of the parent and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance; and
- the requirements for accounting for changes in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control.

IFRSs also grant first-time adopters to voluntarily elect to use exemptions from some requirements of IFRSs. The Company applied the following exemptions:

a. Business combinations

The Company has elected not to apply IFRS 3 “Business Combinations,” retrospectively to business combinations that occurred before the date of transition to IFRSs.

b. Translation differences for foreign operations

The Company has transferred all cumulative translation differences from other comprehensive income to retained earnings on the date of transition to IFRSs.

c. Share-based payments

The Company does not apply IFRS 2 “Share-based Payment” to a portion of stock options that were vested before the date of transition to IFRSs.

d. Compound instruments

The Company does not apply IAS 32 “Financial Instruments: Presentation” to the compound instruments with no outstanding liability balance at the date of transition to IFRSs.

The Company has made necessary adjustments to the consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with JGAAP that had already been disclosed, in the course of the preparation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRSs.

Reconciliations required to be disclosed under the first-time adoption of IFRSs are as follows:

Items that do not affect retained earnings and comprehensive income are included in “Reclassification” of the reconciliation. Differences in the scope of consolidation under IFRSs from JGAAP are included in “Differences in the scope of consolidation.” Items that affect retained earnings or comprehensive income are included in “Differences in recognition and measurement.”

The amounts presented in the consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with JGAAP for the years ended on or before March 31, 2013, were rounded down to the nearest million yen. As the amounts presented in the condensed interim consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRSs from the three-month period ended June 30, 2013, are rounded off to the nearest million yen, the amounts under JGAAP presented in the reconciliations are also rounded off to the nearest million yen.

(8) Notes to the reclassification

The following reclassifications are made for the transition to IFRSs and do not affect retained earnings and comprehensive income.

- a. Under JGAAP, investments in associates were included in investment securities. Under IFRSs, they are separately presented as investments accounted for using the equity method.
- b. Under JGAAP, short-term borrowings, current portion of corporate bonds and current portion of lease obligations are presented as separate components and installment payables were included in accounts payable-other and accrued expenses. Under IFRSs, they are all included in interest-bearing debt (current). In addition, under JGAAP, corporate bonds, long-term debt and lease obligations (non-current) are presented as separate components and long-term installment payables were included in other liabilities (long term). Under IFRSs, they are all included in interest-bearing debt (non-current).
- c. Under JGAAP, accounts payable - trade were presented separately. Accounts payable - other (except for installment payables) were included in accounts payable - other and accrued expenses. Deposits and other payables were included in other current liabilities. Under IFRSs, they are all included in trade and other payables.
- d. All deferred tax assets and liabilities that were classified as current items under JGAAP are classified as non-current items under IFRSs.
- e. Upon transition to IFRSs, sales and cost of sales arising from transactions where the Company is acting as a principal are presented on a gross basis. Sales and cost of sales arising from transactions where the Company is acting as an agent are presented on a net basis.
- f. Finance income and cost, such as interest expense, that were presented as non-operating income, non-operating expenses, special income and special loss under JGAAP are presented under finance income (cost), net under IFRSs.
- g. Other reclassifications have been made by aggregating or separating presentation under JGAAP to be consistent with the presentation under IFRSs.

(9) Notes to the differences in the scope of consolidation

The effect of the review of the scope of consolidation under IFRSs from JGAAP is separately presented in these reconciliations.

Under JGAAP, Wireless City Planning Inc. (“WCP”), which operates a wireless communications network using AXGP technology, was accounted for using the equity method, as the Company owns 33.3% of its voting rights. Upon transition to IFRSs, the Company determined that it has substantial control over WCP and included it into the scope of consolidation considering the fact that the Company constitutes the majority of members of WCP’s board of directors and that WCP’s business activities significantly depend on the Company.

In addition to the effect above, there is also a following effect in the reconciliation of equity as of March 31, 2013 and comprehensive income for the year ended March 31, 2013.

eAccess Ltd. became the Company’s wholly owned subsidiary effective on January 1, 2013. On January 17, 2013, the Company transferred certain stocks of eAccess Ltd. to 11 companies outside of the Company.

Under JGAAP, the Company’s voting rights in eAccess Ltd. decreased to 33.3% after the transfer of stocks and eAccess Ltd. was accounted for using the equity method. Under IFRSs, the Company determined that it has substantial control over eAccess Ltd. and included it into the scope of consolidation, as the economic ownership ratio of 99.5% is significantly higher than the percentage of voting rights and the proportion of voting rights is relatively large compared to other holders of voting rights due to the dispersion of voting rights.

Set out below is the consideration transferred, fair values of assets and liabilities, non-controlling interests, goodwill and increase from acquisition of control over subsidiaries, recognized in accordance with IFRS 3 “Business combinations”, as a result of consolidation of eAccess Ltd. on January 1, 2013:

- a. Consideration transferred, fair values of assets and liabilities, non-controlling interest, and goodwill on the acquisition date.

Details of major differences are as follows:

A. Goodwill

Under JGAAP, goodwill was amortized regularly over the periods in which economic benefits were reasonably expected to be realized. Under IFRSs, it is not amortized regularly and this results in an increase of the remaining amount of goodwill and a decrease of selling, general and administrative expenses for the six-month period ended September 30, 2012 and for the year ended March 31, 2013.

An impairment test on goodwill was performed on April 1, 2012 and an impairment loss of ¥3,543 million on goodwill was recognized on April 1, 2012. The amount of the impairment loss on goodwill attributable to owners of the parent was deducted from retained earnings. The impaired goodwill is mainly related to the Fixed-line Telecommunications segment and Internet segment.

The effect arising from the differences is summarized as follows:

(Consolidated statements of financial position)	(Millions of yen)
	As of April 1, 2012	As of September 30, 2012	As of March 31, 2013
Increase (decrease) in goodwill	(3,543)	28,390	60,751
Decrease in non-controlling interests	793	366	47
Increase (decrease) in retained earnings	(2,750)	28,756	60,798

(Consolidated statements of financial position)	Six-month period ended September 30, 2012	Three-month period ended September 30, 2012	Year ended March 31, 2013
	Decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses	31,661	15,862
Increase in income before income tax	31,661	15,862	64,022

B. Property, plant and equipment

Upon transition to IFRSs, residual values and depreciation method of property, plant and equipment have been reviewed.

The effect arising from the differences is summarized as follows:

(Consolidated statements of financial position)	(Millions of yen)
	As of April 1, 2012	As of September 30, 2012	As of March 31, 2013

Decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses	128	114	610
Decrease in income before income tax	(1,285)	(518)	(1,307)

C. Cumulative translation differences for foreign operations at the date of transition to IFRSs

By applying the exemption as an IFRSs first-time adopter as described above, the Company has transferred all cumulative translation differences for foreign operations to retained earnings on the date of transition to IFRSs (April 1, 2012), which has resulted in a decrease in retained earnings by ¥30,827 million.

D. Revenue recognition

- a. Under JGAAP, commission fees related to sales of mobile handsets that the Company pays to dealers of mobile handsets were expensed as incurred. Under IFRSs, the amount of commission fees expected to occur in the future is deducted from the related revenues.
- b. Under JGAAP, activation fees and upgrade fees were recognized as revenues upon receipt. Under IFRSs, they are deferred upon entering into the contract and recognized as revenues over the estimated average contract period and estimated average usage period of handsets. Direct costs related to activation are deferred to the extent of the activation fees and upgrade fees are amortized over the same periods.
- c. Under JGAAP, an allowance for point mileage was accrued based on the estimated future obligation arising from point service to customers and provisions for the allowance were expensed as selling, general and administrative expenses. Under IFRSs, point services are recognized individually as goods to be transferred or serviced to be provided in the future. The fair value of benefits exchanged with points is deducted from revenues and revenues are recognized when customers use those points.

The effect arising from the differences is summarized as follows:

	(Millions of yen)

E. Financial instruments

- a. Under JGAAP, convertible bonds with stock acquisition rights were recognized as a whole and presented as a liability. Under IFRSs, stock acquisition rights embedded in convertible bonds are recognized separately and presented as additional paid-in capital. They are measured as the difference between the entire fair value of the convertible bonds with stock acquisition rights and the fair value of similar bonds with no stock acquisition rights. Also, under JGAAP, transaction costs related to the issuance of bonds are recognized as an asset and amortized over the redemption period. Under IFRSs, they are allocated to the liability and equity components in proportion to the carrying amounts. The costs related to liability is reflected in the measurement of amortized cost of the bond and recognized as expenses over the redemption period. The cost related to stock acquisition rights is deducted from equity.
- b. Under JGAAP, commission fees related to borrowing were expensed as incurred. Under IFRSs, they are included in measuring the liability at amortized cost and recognized as an expense over the redemption period.
- c. Under JGAAP, financial assets related to securitization transactions were derecognized when control over financial components of the financial assets is transferred to a third party. Under IFRSs, financial assets are derecognized when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset. Therefore, for certain securitization transactions that previously qualified for extinguishment of financial assets under JGAAP, securitized receivables are recognized retrospectively and accompanying liabilities are recognized as borrowings under IFRSs since they are not qualified for derecognition of financial assets under IFRSs.
- d. Under JGAAP, unlisted shares were measured based on their historical costs and impaired as necessary. Under IFRSs, they are classified as available-for-sale financial assets and measured at their fair values.
- e. Under JGAAP, advances to dealers for installment sales receivables of mobile handsets were recognized as receivables by the amount under the installment contract, less allowance for doubtful accounts. Under IFRSs, the receivables arising from advances to dealers are recognized as trade and other receivables or other financial assets (non-current), while commission is expensed. Commission consists of credit risk, collecting costs and interest due to the passage of time.
- f. Under JGAAP, preferred securities issued by a subsidiary were accounted for as equity transactions. Under IFRSs, they are accounted for as interest-bearing debt and measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method as it is necessary to deliver cash to owners of preferred securities in the future.

The effect arising from the differences is summarized as follows:

(Consolidated statements of financial position)	(Millions of yen)
	As of April 1, 2012	As of September 30, 2012	As of March 31, 2013
Increase in trade and other receivables	163,745	203,959	220,204

Increase in other comprehensive income (net of tax)	5,448	3,069	12,609

F. Employee benefits

- a. Upon transition to IFRSs, unused paid absences and long-term employee benefits are recognized as liabilities.
- b. Under JGAAP, unrecognized actuarial gains and losses of retirement benefit obligations in the defined benefit plans were expensed as incurred in principle. Under IFRSs, they are recognized as other comprehensive income and transferred to retained earnings as incurred.

The effect arising from the differences is summarized as follows:

(Consolidated statements of financial position)	As of April 1, 2012	As of September 30, 2012	(Millions of yen) As of March 31, 2013

G. Investments in associates

Under JGAAP, goodwill related to investments accounted for using the equity method was amortized equally over the periods in which economic benefits were reasonably expected to be realized. Under IFRSs, it is not amortized regularly and that results in an increase of investments accounted for using the equity method and equity income of associates for the six-month period ended September 30, 2012 and for the year ended March 31, 2013. As of April 1, 2012, the entire investment over associates, including goodwill, is tested for impairment. As a result, as of April 1, 2012, the Company recognized an impairment loss of ¥231 million and deducted it from retained earnings.

The effect arising from the differences is summarized as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
(Consolidated statements of financial position)	As of April 1, 2012	As of September 30, 2012	As of March 31, 2013
Increase (decrease) in investments accounted for using the equity method	(231)	4,298	8,863

Increase in equity in income of associates	4,575	1,990	8,295
Increase in income before income tax	4,569	1,987	8,273

H. Acquisition-related costs arising from business combinations

Under JGAAP, acquisition-related costs arising from business combinations are recognized as an asset when they are regarded as consideration for the acquisitions. Under IFRSs, they are expensed as incurred or when services are rendered as transaction costs, directly attributable to business combinations, which have resulted in a decrease in other non-current assets.

The effect arising from the differences is summarized as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
(Consolidated statements of financial position)	As of April 1, 2012	As of September 30, 2012	As of March 31, 2013

Increase in selling, general and administrative expenses	-	-	(3,801)
Decrease in income before income tax	-	-	(3,801)

I. Leases

Under JGAAP, finance lease transactions in which the ownership of leased assets was not transferred to lessees and that are contracted before April 1, 2008, are accounted for as operating lease transactions as permitted exceptionally. Under IFRSs, leased assets and lease obligations are recognized. Accordingly, provisions for impairment of leased assets which were previously included in other liabilities (non-current) under JGAAP are offset by property, plant and equipment. Long-term prepaid lease expenses are offset by lease obligations.

The effect arising from the difference is summarized as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
(Consolidated statements of financial position)	As of April 1, 2012	As of September 30, 2012	As of March 31, 2013

Total differences	(87,122)	3,901	85,316
IFRSs	813,025	(874,144)	471,477

Major differences in recognition and measurement are as follows:

a. Securitization transactions

Under JGAAP, securitization transactions qualifying for extinguishment of financial assets were included in cash flows from operating activities. Under IFRSs, certain securitized receivables are recognized for securitization transactions that are not qualified for derecognition of financial assets and accompanying liabilities are accounted for as borrowings. Accordingly, an increase or decrease in borrowings is included in cash flows from financing activities. As a result, cash flows from operating activities decreased with a corresponding increase in cash flows from financing activities.

b. Measuring financial liabilities by amortized costs

Under JGAAP, commission fees related to borrowings and corporate bonds were included in cash flows from financing activities. Under IFRSs, due to measuring borrowings and corporate bonds by amortized costs, commission fees are included in cash flows from operating activities. As a result, cash flows from operating activities decreased with a corresponding increase in cash flows from financial activities.
